34th Appalachian Collection

The 34th Annual Appalachian Collection occurred on Saturday September 23, 2023 and was a great success. God blessed us with a beautiful fall day, a wonderful group of volunteers and a torrent of generous donations.

The Christian Appalachian Project (christianapp.org) expressed their thanks to all those who donated their time and/or items to make this event another great success.

We would like to thank all the volunteers who took time out of their busy schedules to assist.

In addition, we would like to thank St. Basil the Great and Our Lady of Charity K of C 14406, for their invaluable assistance.

This year, approximately 35 volunteers donated a combined 180 hours to offload approximately 350 vehicles to fill one and one half 53ft trailers.

Many thanks and May God Bless You and Your Family.

The Office of Worship

Christmas Mass Guide 2023

This year, the Fourth Sunday of Advent falls on the same day as Christmas Eve, with Christmas on Monday. The separate obligations to attend Mass for the Fourth Sunday of Advent and Mass for Christmas remain. The Sunday obligation may be fulfilled on Saturday evening after 4:00 pm or at any time on Sunday. The Christmas obligation may be fulfilled on Sunday after 4:00 pm or at any time on Monday, Christmas day. In order to fulfill both obligations, two Masses must be attended, i.e. it is not possible for attendance at one Mass after 4:00pm on Sunday to fulfill both obligations.

Prepare your Heart for the Coming of Advent ~Reconciliation

The forgiveness of our sins is a graced moment in our spiritual journey. During the Rite of Penance after we have confessed our sins, received guidance and a penance from the priest, we receive a blessing and absolution. In the blessing we are reminded that our sins are forgiven through the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. We are reminded of how much God loves us and we are challenged to do our best to avoid sin and live in God's love. All Confessions are in the Church.

Confessions will also be available during the Advent

Evening Prayer on the following Mondays:

December: 4, 11 & 18 at 6:30 p.m. also on Saturdays—8:30-9:30am-(Dec. 2, 9, 16, and 23) Also: 3:30-4:30 pm (except the 23rd) or by appointment.

CARS LEAVE ST. BASIL @8:15AM

Beginning the Church's liturgical year, Advent (from, "ad-venire" in Latin or "to come to") is the season encompassing the four Sundays (and weekdays) leading up to the celebration of Christmas.

The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time and to the anniversary of Our Lord's birth on Christmas. From the earliest days of the Church, people have been fascinated by Jesus' promise to come back. But the scripture readings during Advent tell us not to waste our time with predictions. Advent is not about speculation. Our Advent readings call us to be alert and ready, not weighted down and distracted by the cares of this world (Lk 21:34-36). Like Lent, the liturgical color for Advent is purple since both are seasons that prepare us for great feast days. Advent also includes an element of penance in the sense of preparing, quieting, and disciplining our hearts for the full joy of Christmas.

As we prepare for Christmas, the General Instruction of the Roman Missal notes some differences to the Mass that should be observed during the season. For instance, the priest wears violet or purple during Advent, except for the Third Sunday of Advent (Gaudete Sunday) when rose may be worn (GIRM, no. 346). Aside from what the priest wears, other aesthetic changes in the Church can include a more modestly decorated altar.

The final days of Advent, from December 17 to December 24, we focus on our preparation for the celebrations of the Nativity of our Lord at Christmas. In particular, the "O" Antiphons are sung during this period and have been by the Church since at least the eighth century. They are a magnificent theology that uses ancient biblical imagery drawn from the messianic hopes of the Old Testament to proclaim the coming of Christ as the fulfillment not only of Old Testament hopes, but of present ones as well.

Advent devotions including the Advent wreath, remind us of the meaning of the season.
