5 Tips from Pope Francis for “A Better Kind of Politics”

In Fratelli Tutti, Pope Francis calls for “a better kind of politics, one truly at the service of the common good” (no. 154). As we approach the upcoming elections, the Social Concerns Commission is providing guidance to help you engage in a better kind of politics.

“A better kind of politics” means working across differences to listen to one another and connect around shared values, resulting in creative solutions for the common good. Francis has 5 tips for doing this.

Understand That We Are a Human Family

- ✓ Recover the sense of belonging to a single family
- ✓ Seek the good in all people, including those we may see as different from us

Commit to Approaching Others with Love

- ✓ Model a respectful approach that honors others as made in God’s image
- ✓ Listen with empathy and seek to understand another person’s perspective

Identify Common Values Based on Truth

- ✓ Adopt a commitment to truth, informed by faith and reason
- ✓ Identify common values rooted in truth and justice, such as a commitment to fundamental human rights

Learn How to Unmask the Various Ways that the Truth is Manipulated

- ✓ Consider from what sources you get your information
- ✓ Rely on reputable and longstanding, neutral sources of information
- ✓ Check claims for accuracy against multiple sources before sharing them

Be comfortable with Being a Polyhedron, a Three-Dimensional Multifaced Shape

- ✓ Acknowledge that differences can coexist that enrich and complement each other
- ✓ Become comfortable with holding multiple points of view that may not fit neatly together but that may yield a solution focused on the common good

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen
