PROVIDING HOLISTIC COUNSELING SERVICES TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTHEAST OHIO

In this weekend's Gospel, we see Christ find a deserted place to rest, which is a form of self-care. Self-care is almost always part of the conversation in counseling, and for good reason. On one hand, some people never take a break and are constantly busy with day-to-day life that need to take more time to engage in self-care. On the other hand, some people either do not spend their self-care time wisely. The best way I have found to generally analyze self-care is through the word "recreate" which means "to re-create." True self-care should recreate our motivation, meaning, and love for God and neighbor. If our ways of relaxing do not do these things, then we should try to find something more effective or reevaluate how we engage in the relaxation. For example, watching Netflix for an hour or two is often relaxing, but binge watching a show for eight hours often does not make us feel better afterwards. The same can be said about alcohol, sports, hobbies, and other ways that we participate in self-care- moderation is key. Effective self-care is also hard to do and sometimes we do not feel like participating in what is going to be best for us. The most common example of this is exercise. People rarely feel like exercising but almost always feel better afterwards. Many forms of self-care have this same dynamic such as planning an evening with friends, hosting family, or praying. In the moment we can be unmotivated, but we often feel better afterwards. Self-care is not just doing what we feel like doing, it is engaging in something that is going to recreate what we need it to.

Those benefiting from a prayer shawl might be anyone who is sick, grieving, shut-in or hospitalized. A prayer shawl can also be given to celebrate the birth of a new baby, wedding or special anniversary. A prayer shawl is a beautiful way to wrap a loved one in God's care and mercy.

You can pick up a prayer shawl in the parish office or call Robin Youngs at: 440-526-1686 to request a prayer shawl.

Thank You!

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

Catholic Renewal Ministries 41st Annual Conference

All are invited to attend Catholic Renewal Ministries' 41st Annual Conference to be held on Saturday July 27, 2024 at St. Albert the Great Parish Life Center, 6667 Wallings Rd., North Royalton 44133. This year's theme is "One Body One Spirit". Guest speakers will be Alicia Hartle who serves as executive director of Pentecost Today USA (the National Service Committee of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal in the US), Graeson Dall, a national speaker who ministers with zeal and drive to awaken the universal church to the transformative love of the Holy Spirit, and Fr. Bob Franco, the Bishop's Liaison for Charismatic Renewal in the Cleveland Diocese. Fr. Damian Ference will be the celebrant for the Vigil Mass, and Matt Fafrak will lead us in contemporary praise music throughout the day and evening. Visit the CRM website: www.crmweb.org or call 440-944-9445 for more information. Advance registration postmarked by Wednesday, July 17th, is $35, and at the door $40. Come, as we praise and exalt Jesus in the power of the Holy Spirit and celebrate this year of Eucharistic Revival.

On July 26 the Roman Catholic Church commemorates the parents of the Virgin Mary, Saints Joachim and Anne. The couple's faith and perseverance brought them through the sorrow of childlessness, to the joy of conceiving and raising the immaculate and sinless woman who would give birth to Christ.

The New Testament contains no specific information about the lives of the Virgin Mary's parents, but other documents outside of the Biblical canon do provide some details. Although these writings are not considered authoritative in the same manner as the Bible, they outline some of the Church's traditional beliefs about Joachim, Anne and their daughter.

The "Protoevangelium of James," which was probably put into its final written form in the early second century, describes Mary's father Joachim as a wealthy member of one of the Twelve Tribes of Israel. Joachim was deeply grieved, along with his wife Anne, by their childlessness. "He called to mind Abraham," the early Christian writing says, "that in the last day God gave him a son Isaac."

Joachim and Anne began to devote themselves to rigorous prayer and fasting, in isolation from one another and from society. They regarded their inability to conceive a child as a surpassing misfortune, and a sign of shame among the tribes of Israel.

As it turned out, however, the couple were to be blessed even more abundantly than Abraham and Sarah. An angel revealed this to Anne when he appeared to her and prophesied that all generations would honor their future child: "The Lord has heard your prayer, and you shall conceive, and shall bring forth; and your seed shall be spoken of in all the world."

After Mary's birth, according to the Protoevangelium of James, Anne "made a sanctuary" in the infant girl's room, and "allowed nothing common or unclean" on account of the special holiness of the child. The same writing records that when she was one year old, her father "made a great feast, and invited the priests, and the scribes, and the elders, and all the people of Israel." "And Joachim brought the child to the priests," the account continues, "and they blessed her, saying: 'O God of our fathers, bless this child, and give her an everlasting name to be named in all generations' ... And he brought her to the chief priests; and they blessed her, saying: 'O God most high, look upon this child, and bless her with the utmost blessing, which shall be forever.'"

The protoevangelium goes on to describe how Mary's parents, along with the temple priests, subsequently decided that she would be offered to God as a consecrated Virgin for the rest of her life, and enter a chaste marriage with the carpenter Joseph.

St. Joachim and St. Anne have been a part of the Church's liturgical calendar for many centuries. Devotion to their memory is particularly strong in the Eastern Catholic churches, where their intercession is invoked by the priest at the end of each Divine Liturgy. The Eastern churches, however, celebrate Sts. Joachim and Anne on a different date, Sept. 9.

35th Annual Appalachian Collection will support the following charitable organization this year

Christian Appalachian Project (CAP)

This year, the Appalachian Collection will support those in need residing in the Appalachian Mountains in the Eastern Kentucky area. The Knights of Columbus of Our Lady of Charity Council 14406 would appreciate donations of household goods, including small appliances, cooking utensils, dishes, sheets, blankets, towels, all clothing and toys. To prevent your donation items from becoming separated or damaged, please tie shoes together, double bag, securely close bags and limit box and bag weights to no more than 25#.

Monetary donations will also be accepted and are greatly appreciated. Receipts will be provided for all donations.

The Appalachian Collection held at St. Basil will be:
Saturday, Sept 28th 8:00am until 6:00pm or until BOTH trailers are full– No items will be accepted before Saturday, September 28th.

“When considering your donation, please keep in mind that broken items or items that are harshly used are more of a burden to the Collection than a blessing.”

A good rule of thumb defining a worthy donation - - donate only items that you would donate to a family member or neighbor and they would use.

A list of items needed (and not needed) can be found at www.kofc14406.org/Collection.

If you wish to learn more about the Christian Appalachian Project, their website is www.christianapp.org

CAP is providing TWO 53ft trailers again this year and donations will be accepted until both trucks are full so please plan to stop by before noon.

Please bring your donations to the St. Basil parking lot on:

Saturday, Sept 28th 8:00am until 6:00pm or until BOTH trailers are full

Many volunteers are needed to help with this project. If you are able to help in any capacity, please sign up at www.kofc14406.org/Collection . You will be glad you took the time.

If you have further questions, please contact Ken Peters at 216-849-1434.
