Loving Our Neighbor Through Dialogue

In Fratelli Tutti, Pope Francis calls Catholics and all people of good will to seek “a better kind of politics.” We do this by 1) seeing all as members of one family, 2) seeking to encounter, 3) identifying common values, 4) listening to understand, and 5) seeking the truth together.

Dialogue helps us do this. When we engage in dialogue across boundaries, we enrich our faith lives. Doing this also allows us to show our love for God, our neighbor and self.

We show our love for God when we recognize his presence in each person, created with dignity and in his image, including those with whom we disagree. We show love for God and reverence for all he has created through a disposition of respect and by listening to others to better understand.

We show our love of our neighbor by choosing to engage in the world around us instead of turning inward. Pope Francis instructs us: “Dialogue between generations; dialogue among our people; readiness to give and receive while remaining open to the truth. A country flourishes when constructive dialogue occurs between its many components.” (Fratelli Tutti, no. 199).

We show love of ourselves when we thoughtfully engage in dialogue. In preparing for dialogue, we are encouraged to engage in prayerful reflection, study of Scripture and Church teachings and reputable expert guidance. We should also engage in self-examination to ensure that our perspectives are rooted in truth, that our sources of information are unbiased, and that we do not open ourselves to manipulation by those who spread falsehoods for political gain.

How To Begin?

- ✓ Before any dialogue ask “What could I love about this person?”
- ✓ And then ask: “What am I hoping for in this dialogue?” “Am I seeking to truly understand their point of view, or am I looking to persuade them?”
- ✓ Determine what questions to ask to help understand more.
- ✓ Determine what are the values I bring to the table? How can I be open to finding common values with my conversation partner? To what are we both committed?

Generosity Flows from Gratitude to God for all He has given us!

St. Basil's St. Vincent de Paul (SVDP) is grateful to God and to you our parishioners for your monthly donations! Through your generosity we are blessed to help those who come to our door and to support Catholic inner-city parish Hunger Centers, a SVDP practice called "twinning". In June, we assisted the SVDP's of St. Patrick and Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Parishes, as well as the Hunger Centers at Bishop Cosgrove Center, Our Lady of Lourdes, St. Agnes/Our Lady of Fatima, St. Aloysius, St. Michael the Archangel, St. Ignatius of Antioch, LaSagrada Familia, St. Malachi and the Refugee Response Center. We also assisted: Holy Family Home (hospice care), Matt Talbot Inn and Matt Talbot for Women (addiction recovery), Joseph's and Mary's Home (medical respite care for the homeless), Malachi House (hospice for homeless), and Zelig's Home (pregnant and homeless).

Hundreds of Bible verses call upon us to help the poor. Jesus calls all of us to give generously to help the poor. In Mark 12, Jesus tells the story of the widow who "from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood." St. Basil's SVDP thanks you for your generous donations to help those in need. Please continue to pray for the poor and continue to donate to St. Basil's SVDP using your monthly envelope or through Automated Monthly Giving.

The Solemnity Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

August 15, 2024— Holy Day of Obligation

Vigil Mass: August 14th— 7pm

Holy Day: August 15th—8am & 7pm

What is the Assumption?

The first name of this solemnity was the Feast of Mary, Mother of God. Later, its name in the East carried over, the Dormition (or Falling Asleep) of Mary. In the West, it became known as the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

This solemnity celebrates the fact that Mary's Assumption is "a pledge of the future participation of the members of the mystical Body of Christ in the paschal glory of the Risen Christ." It shows that the Lord "reserves a munificent reward for his humble Servant because of her faithful cooperation with the divine plan, which is a destiny of fullness, happiness, glorification of her immaculate soul, her virginal body, perfect configuration to her Risen Son" (Directory, no. 180). The Mass has a proper vigil, and the solemnity replaces the Mass of the day when it occurs on a Sunday in Ordinary Time.

What does this all mean?

On November 1, 1950, Pope Pius XII declared the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, which the Church celebrates every year on August 15. Simply put, the dogma of the Assumption states that at the end of her life, the Blessed Virgin Mary was taken, body and soul, into Heaven.

While this event isn't reflected in Sacred Scripture, it is clearly part of the Church's earliest observance. In the sixth century, St. John Damascene wrote in one of his sermons, "Your sacred and happy soul, as nature will have it, was separated in death from your most blessed and immaculate body, and although the body was duly interred, it did not remain in the state of death, neither was it dissolved by decay; your most pure and sinless body was not left on earth, but you were transferred to your heavenly throne."

Theologically speaking, death is often understood to be a consequence of original sin. Since Mary was conceived without Original Sin, some theologians have wondered if Mary died or if perhaps she was taken into Heaven without experiencing death. The Catechism of the Catholic Church doesn't answer this question but simply states, "The most blessed Virgin Mary, when the course of her earthly life was completed, was taken up body and soul into the glory of heaven" (no. 974)

The Solemnity of the Assumption reminds us of the unique role that Mary served in the process of our salvation. Although she was without sin, we have the possibility of receiving God's forgiveness for our sins through Christ. Her entry into Heaven prefigures our own hope of experiencing the same eternal life.

Ordinarily, the celebration of the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary is a holy day of obligation for Catholics, but when it falls on a Saturday or a Monday, that obligation to attend Mass is lifted.
