1. "Every form of catechesis would do well to attend to the "way of beauty" (via pulchritudinis). Proclaiming Christ means showing that to believe in and to follow him is...something beautiful...Every expression of true beauty can thus be acknowledged as a path leading to an encounter with the Lord Jesus. [What is called for is a] renewed esteem for beauty as a means of touching the human heart and enabling the truth and goodness of the Risen Christ to radiate within it.." (Pope Francis, Joy of the Gospel)

2. If you look at your experience deep enough.... "you begin to see that this is the true nature of reality: its symbolic capacity, its 'sacramentality' -beauty is seducing us, and without clinging to the finite, we must allow it to inspire our yearning for the Infinite, Beauty with a capital B. What must I do? I must be overcome by beauty, by beautiful things, by finding beauty everywhere." (Albacete, Seduced and Sent)

3. "Late have I loved you, O Beauty ever ancient, ever new, late have I loved you! You were within me, but I was outside, and it was there that I searched for you. In my unloveliness I plunged into the lovely things which you created. You were with me, but I was not with you. Created things kept me from you; yet if they had not been in you they would have not been at all. (St. Augustine, Confessions)

"O Beauty, Ever Ancient"

By: Stephanie Baka

As we embark upon our parish "Year of Beauty", I would like to introduce you to a song that we will be using frequently around this theme. "O Beauty Ever Ancient" was written by a Jesuit priest named Fr. Roc O'Connor. He based this song on a much loved prayer from St. Augustine (354-430) that comes from his confessions (400) and sums up his journey towards conversion to Christ, "Late have I loved thee, O Beauty, ever ancient, O Beauty ever new; late have I loved thee." It is a profound recognition of the person's quest to encounter God. Augustine wishes he would have loved God sooner in his life. He realizes that God is beauty himself.

"O Beauty ever ancient." In Sancrosanctum Concilium, the document on the Liturgy from Vatican II, it states that, "the treasure of the sacred music is to be preserved and fostered with great care." It's important to sing the sacred hymns and chants that our Church has sung for centuries. It stood the test of time and shows the universality of the Church. Catholics from all over the world sing these songs, as have those who have gone before us. We are one body, from generation to generation, united in the Liturgy.

"O Beauty ever new." The Holy Spirit "uninterruptedly renew's the Church and leads it to perfect union with its spouse. (Pope Paul VI "Dogmatic Constitution on the Church - Lumen Gentium." Vatican: the Holy See. Rome, 21 Nov. 1965. Web. 29 Jan. 2013.) Our selection of new and modern songs helps us participate in the work of the Holy Spirit. So many of you comment on how much you love the contemporary songs we have been singing and that you are able to enter into them and pray differently with them. The Holy Spirit is at work beginning with Gregory and I planning the music, to flowing directly into your hearts when we sing them at Mass and finally letting them penetrate our lives. It is the fruition of the Holy Spirit. Fresh air and new hope is found in these songs. Psalm 96: "Sing to the Lord a new song".

As your musical shepherds, we find it important to make sure that the music in our Liturgies reveals how God is ever ancient, ever new. As we immerse ourselves into these words of St. Augustine, and the gorgeous melody of Fr. O'Conner, may we hear the gentle call of our Lord to be in union with Him, who is beauty Himself. Amen.

"...let me find my life in you."

"O Beauty, Ever Ancient"

by: Roc O'Connor, SJ

1. Oh, late have I loved you,
oh, late have I turned;
turned from seeking you in creatures,
fleeing grief and pain within.

Refrain: O Beauty, ever ancient,
O Beauty, ever new:
you, the mirror of my life renewed,
let me find my life in you!

2. My unloveliness I ran from,
turned to seek you in all things,
things you fashioned as a pathway;
yet I lost myself in them.

3. This created world is glorious,
yet I could not see within,
see your loveliness behind all,
find the Giver in the gift.

4. I had wandered far, perceiving that I walked my road alone.
Yet you called, you shone, you summoned,
and you drew my spirit home.

Text: Based on a prayer from St. Augustine of Hippo's Confessions, ca. 400.

The Power, Beauty, and Art of

Workshop and Retreat

Oct. 3-5, 2024

There are times in our lives when we sit down with a friend for coffee and learn they are in the midst of a challenging time. Whether that is a parent's illness, divorce, difficulties in relationships, or another struggle, we might feel ill-equipped to walk with them through that struggle. In this 3 day workshop and retreat, Fr. Boniface Hicks and his team will teach participants the Art of Accompaniment. Participants will learn skills to accompany others on their journeys of faith. All are welcome to attend as together we hope to be the light for others in their time of need and be spiritually refreshed in our own personal walks of faith.

Maybe he can't stand on his feet anymore and suffering has shaped his character but this speech by Pope Francis is simply AMAZING!

SHEER BEAUTY!

“You can have flaws, be anxious and even be angry, but don't forget that your life is the greatest business in the world. Only you can stop it from failure. You are appreciated, admired and loved by many. Remember that being happy is not having a sky without storms, a road without accidents, a job without effort, relationships without disappointments.

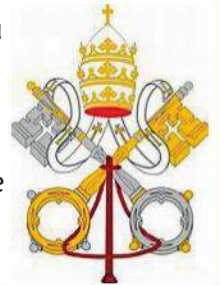

“Being happy is to stop feeling a victim and become the author of your own destiny. It's going through deserts, but being able to find an oasis deep in your soul. It's to thank God every morning for the miracle of life. It's kissing your children, cuddling your parents, having poetic moments with your friends, even when they hurt us.

“To be happy is to let live the creature that lives in each of us, free, joyful and simple. It's having maturity to be able to say: "I made mistakes". Having the courage to say "I'm sorry". It's having a sensitivity to say "I need you". Is having the ability to say "I love you". May your life become a garden of opportunities for happiness... that in spring I can be a lover of joy and in winter a lover of wisdom.

"And when you make a mistake, start over. Because only then will you fall in love with life. You will find that being happy doesn't mean having a perfect life. But she uses tears to irrigate tolerance. Use your defeats to train your patience.

"Use your mistakes with the serenity of the sculptor. Use pain to tune into pleasure. Use obstacles to open the windows of intelligence. Never give up ... Above all, never give up on the people that love you. Never give up on happiness, because life is an amazing show. "

TWENTY- FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The weekend of October 12-13, marks the St. Vincent de Paul's 39th Annual Blanket Sunday Collection! Members of St. Basil's St. Vincent de Paul Society continue to gratefully serve as your representatives to those in need in the Greater Cleveland area. One of the most significant fund-raising efforts of SVDP is the Blanket Sunday Collection. Your donations in 2023 of $4,035 were used to purchase and distribute 799 special request items such as blankets, bedding, and winter clothing, to nine organizations/parishes. Please look for the Special Blanket Sunday envelope in your October packet. If not available, simply make a notation on your check or place cash in any envelope and mark it "Blanket Sunday". St. Basil parishioners have always generously supported Blanket Sunday. The Vincent de Paul Society is proud to be part of this generous parish and sincerely thank you for your ongoing support.

Annual Walk to Remember
October 6, 2024 1 – 2 PM

During October, the month of the Most Holy Rosary, Catholic Cemeteries Association invites families to participate in a half-mile walking Rosary in honor of departed loved ones. We walk, we pray, we sing, and we remember. For those who cannot walk, or in case of rain, the Rosary will be prayed in the mausoleum or in the cemetery office. At the end of the Rosary, there is a brief candle-lighting ceremony in remembrance of our dearly departed. This is a great communal prayer opportunity for families and for Rosary Prayer organizations in your parish. Whether walking or not, you can also honor your departed loved ones by adding their names to our online "In Remembrance" Memorial Wall. Submit names by September 30th to be included for the month of October. Pre-Register and/or submit Remembrance Names by phone, email, US mail (return form at bottom of flyer), or online. Onsite registration is available the morning of the Walk.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen
