Readings to help us prepare for Mass:

1st Reading: Jeremiah 31: 7-9

2nd Reading: Hebrews 5:1-6

Gospel: Mark 10: 46-52

*"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet,
and a light unto my path."*

MAKING MORAL CHOICES IN VOTING

In the Catholic tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue. The responsibility to make political choices rests with each person and his or her properly formed conscience.

As bishops, we do not intend to tell Catholics for whom or against whom to vote. Our purpose is to help Catholics form their consciences in accordance with God's truth". (#7 Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship)

Catholic voters are called to properly form their consciences in preparation for voting and for the continued advocacy for just laws and policies required after voting. This process should focus on moral principles, the defense of life, the needs of the weak, and the pursuit of the common good. It requires constant prayer, understanding of Church teaching, and discernment that goes beyond campaign rhetoric and partisan politics.

This discernment should focus on a candidate's consistency with moral principles, sincerity, integrity and the ability to effect the policies that he or she promotes. It should also include seeking and verifying background information regarding a candidate's stance on policy issues, and a consideration of those who would be directly impacted by such policies.

FORMING CONSCIENCES FOR FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP: A CALL TO POLITICAL RESPONSIBILITY FROM THE CATHOLIC BISHOPS OF THE UNITED STATES
PARAGRAPHS 34-37

Catholics often face difficult choices about how to vote. This is why it is so important to vote according to a well-formed conscience that perceives the proper relationship among moral goods. A Catholic cannot vote for a candidate who favors a policy promoting an intrinsically evil act, such as abortion, euthanasia, assisted suicide, deliberately subjecting workers or the poor to subhuman living conditions, redefining marriage in ways that violate its essential meaning, or racist behavior, if the voter's intent is to support that position. In such cases, a Catholic would be guilty of formal cooperation in grave evil. At the same time, a voter should not use a candidate's opposition to an intrinsic evil to justify indifference or inattentiveness to other important moral issues involving human life and dignity.

There may be times when a Catholic who rejects a candidate's unacceptable position even on policies promoting an intrinsically evil act may reasonably decide to vote for that candidate for other morally grave reasons. Voting in this way would be permissible only for truly grave moral reasons, not to advance narrow interests or partisan preferences or to ignore a fundamental moral evil.

When all candidates hold a position that promotes an intrinsically evil act, the conscientious voter faces a dilemma. The voter may decide to take the extraordinary step of not voting for any candidate or, after careful deliberation, may decide to vote for the candidate deemed less likely to advance such a morally flawed position and more likely to pursue other authentic human goods.

In making these decisions, it is essential for Catholics to be guided by a well-formed conscience that recognizes that all issues do not carry the same moral weight and that the moral obligation to oppose policies promoting intrinsically evil acts has a special claim on our consciences and our actions. These decisions should take into account a candidate's commitments, character, integrity, and ability to influence a given issue. In the end, this is a decision to be made by each Catholic guided by a conscience formed by Catholic moral teaching.

This weekend's Gospel reading focuses on Jesus' teaching about humility and service. James and John ask for positions of honor, but Jesus reminds them that greatness in God's kingdom is found through serving others, not by seeking status. This message challenges our natural desires for recognition and power, reminding us to embrace a life of selflessness. In our personal lives, we often strive for control, approval, or prestige, which can cause anxiety and disconnect us from others. Reflecting on Jesus' words invites us to let go of such ambitions and seek peace through humility. By shifting our focus from self-promotion to serving others, we can experience deeper fulfillment and connection, as Jesus himself modeled by laying down his life for us. St. Teresa of Avila said, "The closer one approaches to God, the simpler one becomes." This echoes the Gospel's call to align ourselves with simplicity, trusting that true greatness is found not in the heights of power but in acts of love and service. As we navigate the complexities of modern life, we can find mental and spiritual peace by following Christ's example of humility and compassion. This week, consider reflecting on attachments you may have to recognition, approval, or control and ask for guidance on how to become the selfless person Christ is calling all of us to be today.

Helping Families Live Out the Faith at Home

OCT 22: ST. JOHN PAUL II

St. John Paul II, born Karol Wojtyła in Poland in 1920, was a beloved Pope who served the Catholic Church from 1978 to 2005. As a young man, he studied in an underground seminary, he loved the arts, and was an avid outdoorsman. He became a priest and eventually Pope. While Pope, he visited 129 countries, established World Youth Day, and taught the world the Theology of the Body. He inspired millions with his kindness and courage, from battling Communism in Europe to forgiving the man who shot him, especially during difficult times. He loved Mary and encouraged everyone to have a relationship with her!

To celebrate the feast:

- Have a Polish Feast: A great way to celebrate as a family is a special meal! Have some polish specialties such as pierogis, kielbasa, sauerkrat, or kremówka, his favorite food!
- Go to the Cleveland Museum of Art: St. John Paul II loved the arts! He wrote a Letter to Artists, and was a poet and playwright himself. In this Year of Beauty, take a family trip to the Art Museum to celebrate. CMA offers Open Studios, a free, drop-in art-making sessions designed for the whole family on Sundays from 10:00 am-2:00 pm.

KREMÓWKA, "PAPAL CREAM CAKE"

For a fun dessert, try kremówka, JP2's favorite food!

For an easy version, you will need:

- Puff Pastry sheets, baked
- Vanilla pudding or custard
- Whipped cream
- Dusting of powdered sugar

To make kremówka, layer puff pastry, pudding/custard, and whipped cream, and cover with another sheet of pastry.

After chilling, dust it with powdered sugar. Enjoy!

TAX-SMART WAYS TO SUPPORT
ST. BASIL THE GREAT CHURCH

St. Basil the Great
CATHOLIC CHURCH
joyful • merciful • faithful

Are you 70 ½ or older? By making a gift directly from your IRA through a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD), you can support our parish's mission and reduce your taxable income. Since the gift counts towards your required minimum distribution but is excluded from your taxable income, it can lower your tax burden. Be sure your gift is made directly from your IRA to a qualified charity like St. Basil the Great Church. Contact Diane in the parish office at 440-526-1686.

You can also support St. Basil with a grant from your donor-advised fund (DAF). This is a tax-efficient way to give since contributions to a DAF are tax-deductible in the year they are made, and you can recommend grants to the parish at a later time.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.
