“The fact that the beauties of this world are subject to change – and are thus, fleeting - can make us sad indeed. But that sadness can also open us to the hope of participating in the Life of the Beautiful One who is not subject to change.” (Christopher West, Eating the Sunrise)

“In the experience of beauty, a door opens momentarily upon the possibility of fulfillment and hurts the soul. It hurts because God made it to hurt; it hurts because it is meant to give the heart a taste of fulfillment in order to create a hunger for it; it hurts because it isn’t an end in itself, but a bread crumb leading to the Source of completion. And the hurt impels us to seek Him.” (Fr. Clayton Thompson, www.catholicgentleman.com, “Why Beauty Hurts”)

“The sweetest thing in all my life has been the longing – to reach the Mountain, to find the place where all the beauty came from – my country, the place where I ought to have been born. Do you think it all meant nothing, all the longing? The longing for home? For indeed it now feels not like going, but like going back.” (C.S. Lewis, Till We Have Faces)

HOMILY NOTES

Series of horizontal lines for taking notes.

Key Points From Beauty Weekend 2:

1. We live in a throwaway culture, and if we do not actively push back, the consumer mentality can consume us, causing encounters to be merely transactional.
2. Therefore, our pace of life requires us to be disciplined by inviting silence into the daily moments, allowing space for us to notice beautiful encounters that draw us into God’s life.
3. Beauty is meant to be savored because we were made for transformational encounters that keep our eyes on the horizon of God’s never-fading glory and infinite Beauty. After all, “Beauty is an essential human need. It is not an ornament.”

Share with us where you notice beauty using #BIMBY Beauty in my Backyard on social media!

TAX-SMART WAYS TO SUPPORT ST. BASIL THE GREAT CHURCH

St. Basil the Great
CATHOLIC CHURCH

poiful - weicial - fadidid

Are you 70 ½ or older? By making a gift directly from your IRA through a Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD), you can support our parish's mission and reduce your taxable income. Since the gift counts towards your required minimum distribution but is excluded from your taxable income, it can lower your tax burden. Be sure your gift is made directly from your IRA to a qualified charity like St. Basil the Great Church. Contact Diane in the parish office at 440-526-1686.

You can also support St. Basil with a grant from your donor-advised fund (DAF). This is a tax-efficient way to give since contributions to a DAF are tax-deductible in the year they are made, and you can recommend grants to the parish at a later time.

prayer shawl ministry
knit-crochet-pray

Those benefiting from a prayer shawl might be anyone who is sick, grieving, shut-in or hospitalized. A prayer shawl can also be given to celebrate the birth of a new baby, wedding or special anniversary. A prayer shawl is a beautiful way to wrap a loved one in God's care and mercy.

You can pick up a prayer shawl in the parish office or call Robin Youngs at 440-526-1686 to request a prayer shawl.

"Advent invites us to a commitment to vigilance, looking beyond ourselves, expanding our mind and heart in order to open ourselves up to the needs of people, of brothers and sisters, and to the desire for a new world."

Pope Francis, Angelus, 2018

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen
