Stained Glass Spotlight

This window is located in the Cathedral of St. Elizabeth, the largest Church in Slovakia and one of the easternmost Gothic cathedrals in the world. The original Church was dedicated to St. Michael in 1230, but when German colonists came in the 1240s, the patronage was changed to St. Elizabeth.

St. Michael has long been an important patron for Slovaks. St. Michael's gate stands at the center of Old Town Bratislava and there are numerous Churches and Chapels dedicated to him throughout the country, including one made entirely of wood which was created without a single metal nail. Personally, my family is Slovak and my great-grandfather who came over from Slovakia was named Michael. Both St. Michael and great grandpa Michael are patrons of our family, watching over as protectors.

When I was little, and woke up in the middle of the night scared, my mom would always pray for a hedge of protection of angels to surround our house and keep us safe. As a child I thought of little cherub angels watching over us, but now I know that she was calling on St. Michael, a great protector to watch over us.

St. Michael is a warrior, as pictured here in the window, trampling over Satan and defending the world from the enemy. In this depiction, his shield reads, "Quis ut Deus" which is the literal translation of the name Michael, "Who is like God?" This not only describes Michael, one who protects from the evil as God does, but is also a taunt at Satan at his feet, questioning to him, who do you think you are? Like God? St. Michael the Archangel, pray for us!

A Brief Examination of Conscience

Based on the Ten Commandments

I am the LORD your God: you shall not have strange Gods before me.

Have I treated people, events, or things as more important than God?

You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain.

Have my words, actively or passively, put down God, the Church, or people?

Remember to keep holy the LORD's Day.

Do I go to Mass every Sunday (or Saturday Vigil) and on Holy Days of Obligation (Jan. 1; the Ascension; Aug. 15; Nov. 1; Dec. 8; Dec. 25)? Do I avoid, when possible, work that impedes worship to God, joy for the Lord's Day, and proper relaxation of mind and body? Do I look for ways to spend time with family or in service on Sunday?

Honor your father and your mother.

Do I show my parents due respect? Do I seek to maintain good communication with my parents where possible? Do I criticize them for lacking skills I think they should have?

You shall not kill.

Have I harmed another through physical, verbal, or emotional means, including gossip or manipulation of any kind?

You shall not commit adultery.

Have I respected the physical and sexual dignity of others and of myself?

You shall not steal.

Have I taken or wasted time or resources that belonged to another?

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

Have I gossiped, told lies, or embellished stories at the expense of another?

You shall not covet your neighbor's spouse.

Have I honored my spouse with my full affection and exclusive love?

You shall not covet your neighbor's goods.

Am I content with my own means and needs, or do I compare myself to others unnecessarily?

Christ's Two Commandments

How well do we love God and others? Do we love as Christ calls us to? In the Gospel of Matthew, Christ gives us Two Commandments: "He said to him, 'You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments'" (Mt 22:37-40).

Not sure what love is? St. Paul describes it for us in his Letter to the Corinthians. Is this how you love God and others? "Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, [love] is not pompous, it is not inflated, it is not rude, it does not seek its own interests, it is not quick-tempered, it does not brood over injury, it does not rejoice over wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails" (1 Cor 13:4-8).

SUPPORT THE CHURCH IN CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE

RESTORE THE CHURCH BUILD THE FUTURE

Decades ago, the bishops of the United States established a program to aid the Church in Central and Eastern Europe and help it rebuild after decades of communist oppression. The program is funded by an annual collection taken up in dioceses across the United States. That response continues today, even as the rebuilding Church faces the new challenges of war and the mass migration of refugees.

From the beginning of the Russian Federation's invasion of Ukraine in February 2022 and the subsequent war, the Catholic Church has vigorously responded to the ongoing humanitarian catastrophe by offering shelter, food, medicine, and necessities—as well as spiritual support and comfort—to displaced persons and other war victims. Among those leading this charitable response are the consecrated religious sisters and brothers of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church. Whether by providing shelter and basic necessities to internally displaced persons who have fled their homes for safety in other regions of the country, or by helping priests provide pastoral and humanitarian support in areas where the fighting is most heavy, these sisters and brothers have truly showed Christ's mercy to those most in need.

For them, the human suffering of war is compounded by the unique challenges that wartime conditions present for them as consecrated religious. Questions of how religious communities balance ministry to the needy with the sisters and brothers' needs to live their vows of prayer and community under such extraordinary circumstances require thoughtful responses.

Aided by funding from the collection, the Patriarchal Curia of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church gathered sisters, brothers, and their superiors for the spiritual renewal of a pilgrimage as well as formation sessions to address the challenges facing their communities. Your support for the Collection for the Church in Central and Eastern Europe is a vital way for you to make a tangible difference in the lives of Catholics in Ukraine and more than 25 other countries in Central and Eastern Europe.

More information about the collection and the range of projects it supports can be found at www.usccb.org/ccc.

Beginning Sunday March 2nd, Baptisms will be held in the Chapel. During the upgrading of the church, we were concerned about the weather and decided to have all the baptisms scheduled in the same building as the Mass.

However, we believe the environment of the Chapel is more important than the concern about walking across the parking lot. Anyone who scheduled a baptism for March and into April will be contacted.

Our world is full of noise. Often, that noise is loud and negative. When was the last time you heard something good on the news? Because of the constant intake of “bad news”, many people no longer believe in the Providence of God, nor trust that he has a plan for us.

This lent, join us for a four-week video series: “FORETOLD” presented by the Augustine Institute. Following the video, there will be table discussions. A Lenten reflection book can be purchased for $5.00. Please register at basilthegreat.org or call Nancy Slusarczyk at 440-537-2026.

The series begins on Wednesday, March 12 through April 2.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen
