Prayer for Spiritual Communion

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

PROVIDING HOLISTIC COUNSELING SERVICES TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTHEAST OHIO

Death is scary. I have heard that, just like taxes, you cannot escape it. All Soul's Day invites us to remember and pray for all who have finished their earthly journey and await the fullness of God's mercy. It is a bittersweet day of love and sadness. Sometimes we lose our loved ones and know it was their time, but can still be so impacted by grief. Sometimes the loss can be sudden and unexpected, which can leave us stunned and wrought with despair. However, mourning is not despair but an act of faith. It is a recognition that love does not end with death. Grief is not a sign of weak faith but a testimony to the love that still lives within us. The heart that grieves also hopes as it looks toward the promise of resurrection. Healing from loss involves allowing ourselves to feel deeply while remaining anchored in hope. One of my favorite quotes by St. Thérèse of Lisieux is, "The world's thy ship, not thy home." Her words remind us that this life, with all its joys and sorrows, is part of a greater journey toward eternal communion with God. As we pray for the souls of the departed today, may we also find peace and hope in remembering that God's mercy in the presence of death and his comfort in our time of need.
