Fact of Faith

WHY IS LENT FORTY DAYS?

The Lenten season is a time of preparation for the liturgical celebration of the suffering, Death, and Resurrection of Christ. Many Catholics spend that time on the three practices of Lent: prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. It is also a time to participate in the Sacrament of Penance and Reconciliation.

The season of Lent lasts from Ash Wednesday until the evening of Holy Thursday. If Sundays are excluded from the count, the season lasts forty days. The forty-day length of Lent is rooted in the biblical usage of the number forty. Forty is typically indicative of a time of testing, trial, penance, purification, and renewal. In the New Testament, forty days is the length of Jesus' time of trial in the desert in preparation for his public ministry, proclaiming the Gospel.

Mark 1:12-15

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the desert, and he remained in the desert for forty days, tempted by Satan. He was among wild beasts, and the angels ministered to him.

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand.

The forty-day period of Jesus' trial in the desert echoes a number of events in the Old Testament:

- The face of the earth was cleansed and purified during the promised period of days and nights that rain poured down during the great flood—"I will bring rain down on the earth for forty days and forty nights, and so I will wipe out from the surface of the earth every moving creature that I have made" (Gen 7:4).
- The face of the earth was renewed during a forty-day period after the mountain tops appeared and the waters of the great flood receded—"The tops of the mountains appeared. At the end of forty days Noah opened the hatch of the ark that he had made" (Gen 8:5-6).
- Moses spent forty years as a shepherd in the desert before God called him to lead the Israelites out of slavery—"Moses fled when he heard this and settled as an alien in the land of Midian . . . Forty years later, an angel appeared to him in the desert near Mount Sinai in the flame of a burning bush" (Acts 7: 29-30).
- Moses fasted for forty days and nights on Mount Sinai before receiving the tablets of the covenant—

"So Moses stayed there with the LORD for forty days and forty nights, without eating any food or drinking any water, and he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments" (Ex 34:28).

- The Israelites spent forty years wandering in the desert, as a time of testing, trial and purification of the people, before reaching the Promised Land—"Now the Israelites had wandered forty years in the desert, until all the warriors among the people that came forth from Egypt died off because they had not obeyed the command of the LORD" (Jos 5:6; see Num 32:13).
- The prophet Elijah spent forty days in the desert before encountering God on Mount Horeb—" [Elijah] got up, ate and drank; then strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb" (1 Kgs 19:8).
- The Ninevites were given forty days before God was going to destroy the city, allowing time for repentance and conversion—"Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing, 'Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed,' when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth" (Jon 3:4-5).

Ash Wednesday is February 18th and it begins the Lenten season where Catholics are called to grow closer to Christ through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Now is the time to start preparing for what you will take on or give up during the 40 days of Lent. Here is a practical guide with 20 ideas to help get you started.

Think of what you typically spend a lot of money on. Do you buy too many clothes or eat out too often? Consider fasting from one of these and maybe donate the saved money to charity.

Take on 40 days of doing something particular like saying a particular prayer each day or doing 40 acts of kindness.

Pray before work. What is the first thing you do when you get to work? Check email? Consider taking 5 minutes to pray.

Attend week-day Mass once a week, or one extra day if you already go.

Pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy every Friday

Start a Lenten journal. Take some time each day in prayer and reflection on your spiritual journey and jot down what comes to you.

Fast from music on your drive to work and use the time to pray instead.

Limit time on social media.

Fast from snacking between meals.

Volunteer at a food pantry, soup kitchen or homeless shelter.

Write letters to those in prison, nursing homes or the military.

Reach out to someone you know who may be in need of companionship or offer to run an errand for someone who cannot get out.

Give up soda, coffee or alcohol.

Read the daily Scripture.

Think of a habit that keeps you from being who God wants you to be. Give it up! (Maybe this is something to journal about as you consider what that habit might be.)

Save money and donate it to the Mite Box collection.

Spend one hour a week in Eucharistic Adoration.

Wake up without hitting the snooze button and use that extra time for prayer right away in the morning.

Every morning, scroll through your phone contacts. Randomly stop on a person and say a prayer for them.

THE SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

The conference theme, "Innovative Approaches to Compassionate Healthcare - The Ministry of Mercy", was chosen since innovation is essential in medicine to develop new therapies and approaches to help alleviate suffering and eradicate illness. A wide array of novel technologies has rapidly emerged in medical practice to enhance the level of care patients receive. However, it is imperative not to sacrifice important measures necessary to foster outstanding relationships between healthcare professionals and their patients. As such, further efforts to exercise compassion and to show mercy are essential. Innovative approaches of practicing such virtues in concert with medical technology advances offer tremendous hope for delivering the best care possible to patients and their families. Attention to the spiritual well-being of patients is also necessary to help bring forth definitive healing. The audience will include healthcare professionals as well as all others not involved in the medical disciplines.	10:45 - 11:00 AM	BREAK
