50TH Wedding ANNIVERSARY

"You show us a love ever ancient and ever new. God was present the day you met, the day you married, he's with you today and he'll be with you tomorrow," Bishop Edward Malesic told the couples celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary at the annual diocesan golden wedding anniversary Mass. The liturgy was celebrated June 14 in the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist.

The bishop invited the faithful to "Take a walk down memory lane to 1976. Gas was 36 cents per gallon. President Jimmy Carter was in the White House. The United States was 200 years old," he said. Popular television shows included "Laverne and Shirley," "Happy Days" and "M*A*S*H." He also noted that disco music was popular and Barbra Streisand had a hit song, "Evergreen," from the movie "A Star is Born."

Quoting the song lyrics, Bishop Malesic said the couples' love is "'Ageless and evergreen.' You promised at your wedding to love each other and to be true. And here you are, many years later, with dreams fulfilled, experiencing disappointments and times when staying together took courage ... But you're here after 50 years and you still choose each other. That's a miracle," he said, adding, "Jesus said, 'Be my witnesses to this world.' See what he can do when he takes two people and makes them one?"

After the homily, the anniversary couples were invited to stand and renew their commitment to each other. They also received a blessing from the bishop and after Mass, there was an opportunity to take photos with the bishop. Congratulations!

Reflection from Pope John Paul II

Joannes Paulus II

"It is Jesus that you seek when you dream of happiness; He is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you; He is the beauty to which you are so attracted; it is He who provoked you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you settle for compromise; it is He who urges you to shed the masks of a false life; it is He who reads in your heart your most genuine choices, the choices that others try to stifle.

It is Jesus who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your lives, the will to follow an ideal, the refusal to allow yourselves to be ground down by mediocrity, the courage to commit yourselves humbly and patiently to improving yourselves and society, making the world more human and more fraternal."

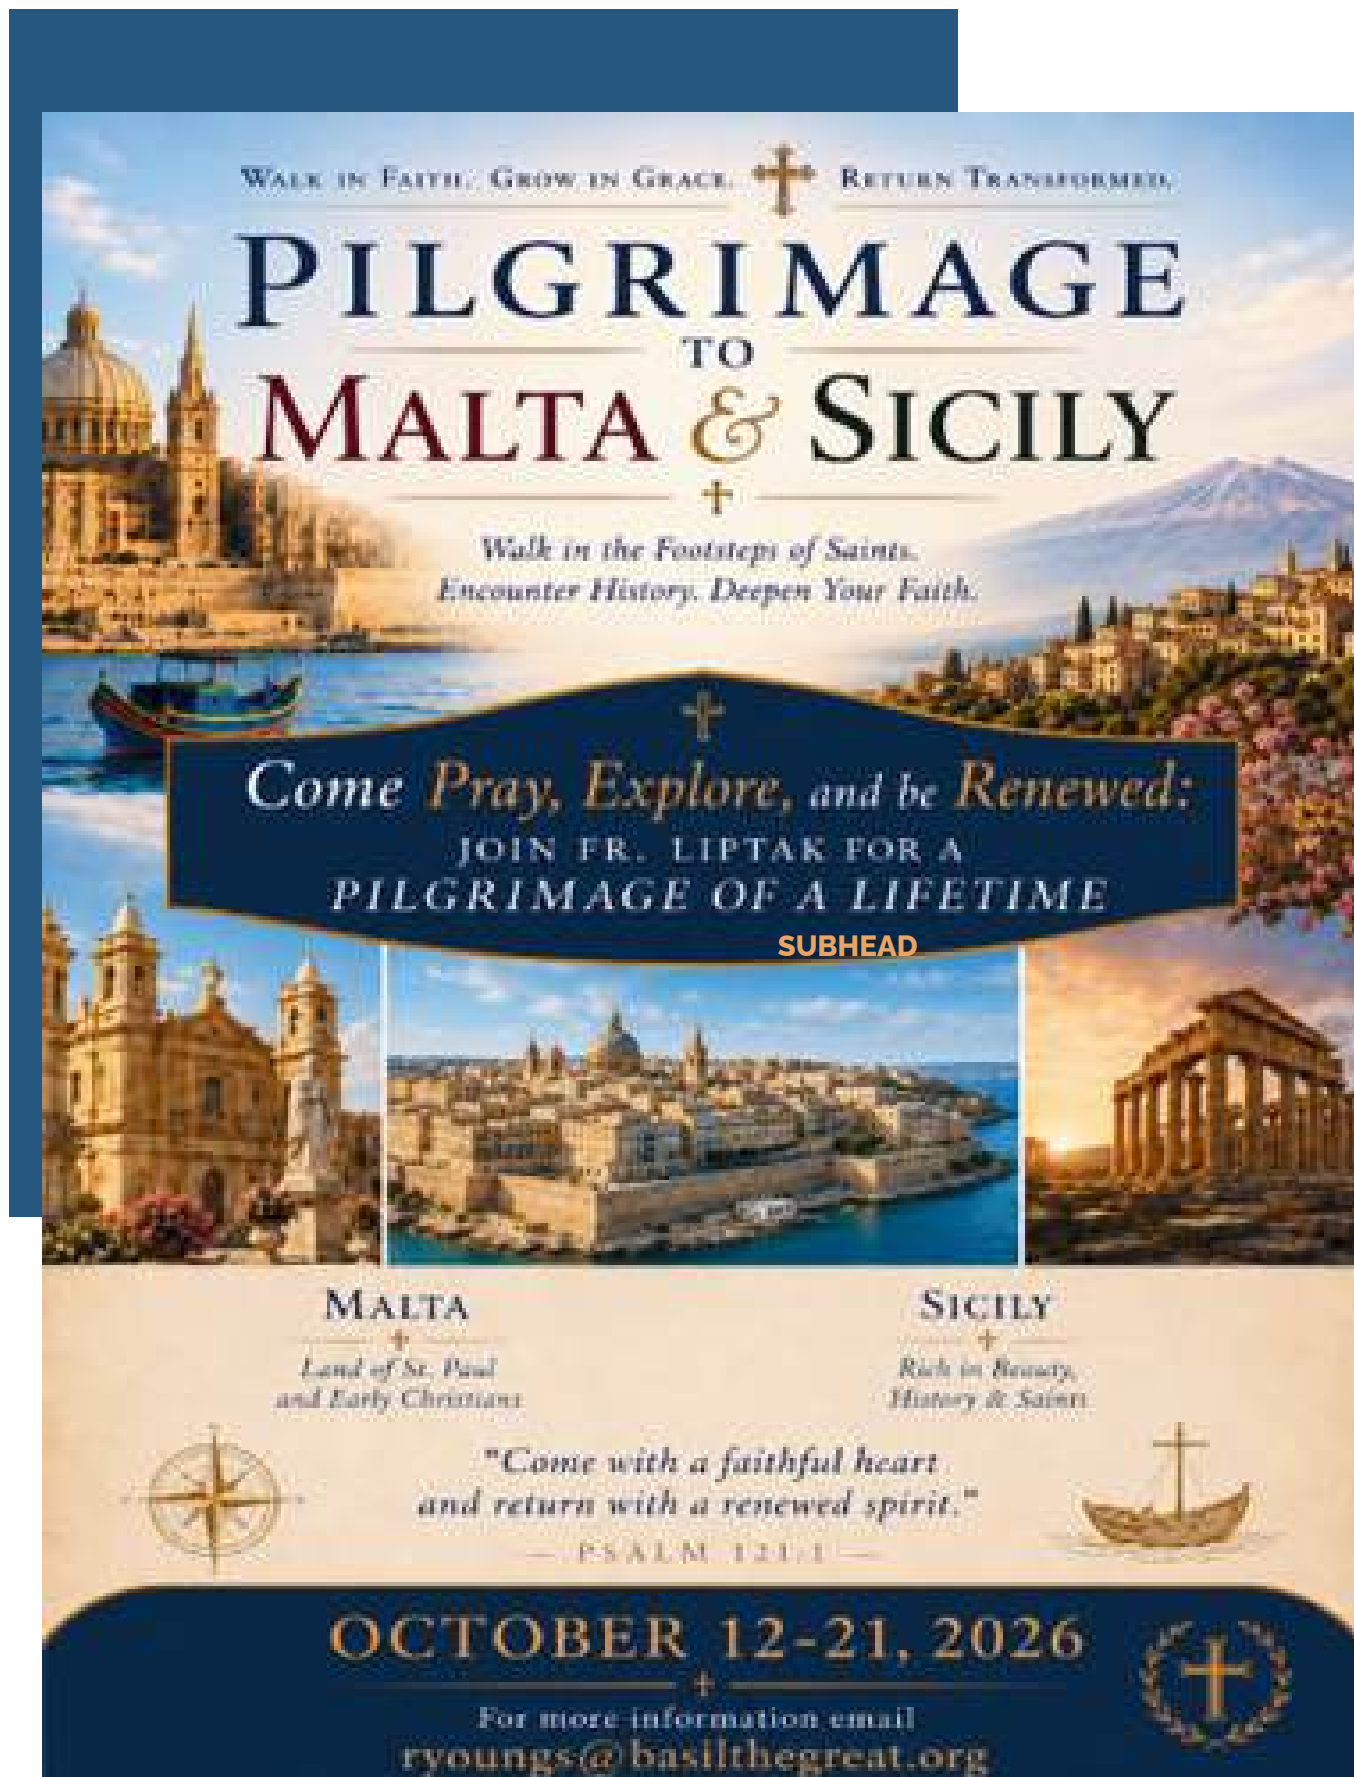

— Pope John Paul II

Life of Our Saints

St. Maria Goretti is the patron saint of youth, purity, chastity, and forgiveness. She is also widely venerated as the patroness of rape victims, victims of sexual assault, teenage girls, and the poor. Canonized by Pope Pius XII in 1950, she is best known for being one of the youngest saints in the Catholic Church. As a young Italian girl living in extreme poverty, she was fatally stabbed in 1902 by a neighbor whose sexual advances she repeatedly refused. She is remembered for heroically choosing death over committing a moral sin and for explicitly forgiving her attacker on her deathbed. Her legacy centers on the transformative power of mercy and moral courage. Her feast day is celebrated annually on July 6th.

50th anniversary season of the Steubenville Youth Conferences - Pope Leo gives unexpected greeting!

STEUBENVILLE — Thousands of Catholic teens attending the 50th anniversary season of the Steubenville Youth Conferences received an unexpected greeting this week when Pope Leo XIV appeared on screen with a special message encouraging them to seek authentic peace, perfect joy and God's call for their lives. The recorded eight-minute video debuted June 19 before young people gathered at Franciscan University of Steubenville and satellite conference locations in Denver, Dallas and Orlando. It will be shown throughout the summer to more than 43,000 participants attending Steubenville Youth Conferences across the United States and Canada.

Reflecting on the life of St. Francis of Assisi during this Jubilee Year marking the 800th anniversary of his death, Pope Leo challenged young people to look beyond the distractions of modern culture and discover lasting joy in Christ. "St. Francis' message, and mine, is simple: true peace and perfect joy are gifts from God that come when we open ourselves to him and trust in his power to transform us," Pope Leo said. The Holy Father also encouraged attendees to be open to God's call in their lives. "Today, the Lord needs missionaries to spread the word to those who do not know him, holy men and women to begin loving Catholic families, priests to be spiritual fathers and ministers of the sacraments as well as religious men and women to be witnesses of the true joy of his kingdom," he said. "If you have a sense that the Lord may be calling you to one of these vocations, do not close yourself off or turn away in fear, but take a step forward and say to the Lord, 'Here I am, send me!'" Several young attendees said Pope Leo's reflections on St. Francis and trusting God through life's challenges resonated deeply.
