"What are you looking for?"

John 1:38

Interested in becoming Catholic?

Know someone that is searching?

All are welcome to OCIA at St. Basil!

St. Basil The Great Parish welcomes anyone who wishes to inquire about the Catholic faith. Maybe you have been attending Mass for awhile and would like to learn more about the beliefs and practices of Catholics. You might be married to a Catholic, or you have a Catholic friend or relative and would like to discuss your questions or concerns about Catholicism with someone from the church. We invite you to continue searching at OCIA (Order of Catholic Initiation for Adults)

If you would like to fully explore the possibility of becoming Catholic or refer a friend, please reach out to Fr. Liptak at jlptak@basilthegreat.org or 440.373.7560. OCIA will begin this August.

Prayer to St. Joseph for Protection

Oh, St. Joseph, whose protection is so great, so prompt, so strong, before the throne of God, I place in you all my interests and desires.
Oh, St. Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession, and obtain for me from your Divine Son
all spiritual blessings, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.
So that, having engaged here below your heavenly power,
I may offer my thanksgiving and homage to the most loving of fathers.

Oh, St. Joseph, I never weary contemplating you and Jesus asleep in your arms;
I dare not approach while he reposes near your heart.
Press him in my name and kiss his fine head for me and ask him to return the kiss when I draw my dying breath.
St. Joseph, patron of departing souls - pray for me. Amen.

Honoring our First Responders

ST. MICHAEL STATUE DEDICATION

On June 29, we dedicated a new statue of St. Michael the Archangel, patron of those who serve in harm's way, to our first responders. We gathered as a community to thank our police, firefighters, and emergency medical personnel for their courage, sacrifice, and commitment to our community.

Life of Our Saints

St. Mary Magdalene is the patron saint of converts, penitent sinners, sexual temptation, and the contemplative life. She is also the patron of professions related to her legacy and traditional roles, including hairdressers, perfumers, pharmacists, and glove makers. Her patronage extends to several specific groups and causes: Faith & Devotion: People ridiculed for their piety, converts, and those persecuted for their faith. People typically pray to Mary Magdalene for forgiveness, spiritual healing, and the courage to repent. As the "Apostle to the Apostles," her intercession is often sought to find comfort in times of grief, overcome past sins or bad habits, and gain the boldness to share one's faith.

Jesus loved Mary Magdalene because of her profound loyalty, deep spiritual understanding, and unwavering courage. As one of his most devoted followers, she stayed with him at the cross and was famously the first to witness the resurrection—an honor that earned her the title "Apostle to the Apostles".

Her feast day is July 22nd.

Prayers

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

The Diocese of Cleveland's "Protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior. Also, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at: 216-334-2999 or via email at: response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

We pray for all those who are in need of our prayers.

Ask and you will receive

Each weekend after the Saturday 5 pm and the Sunday 9 am and 11 am masses there are individuals who believe God answers all prayer and are available to pray with you. Discreet, confidential and powerful prayer seeking God's intervention. Located In the Chapel - experience the power of prayer.

PROVIDING HOLISTIC COUNSELING SERVICES TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTHEAST OHIO

In this week's second reading, St. Paul is writing to the Romans about how he considers the sufferings of the present moment as nothing. When we experience suffering, it is an incredibly unique experience. I often hear people say that other forms of suffering would be easier than the one they are currently struggling with and how much they wish they could carry a different cross than the one that has been laid upon them. While this is a natural and common response to suffering, it is not something I recommend dwelling on. While some seem to have greater suffering than others, St. Paul reminds us that it will all be redeemed and that the time of glory will soon come. God promises us that, in the end, all will be made clear to us. In our fallen nature, we are never able to fully understand suffering and we are often left wondering why people experience suffering. When we are met with a crisis, it can rattle our faith and cause us to question many things. Where is God in all of this? Why is this happening? Is God listening to our cries for help? While we will likely not receive the answer in this lifetime, or at least not the full answer, we have to trust that all will be revealed when the time comes and that there is no such thing as needless suffering. God always works through suffering. Instead of asking why in the midst of suffering, consider praying about how you can use this suffering to become more virtuous, holy, and closer to Christ.
