OCIA

Interested in becoming Catholic?
Know someone that is searching?
All are welcome to OCIA at St.
Basil the Great!

St. Basil The Great Parish welcomes anyone who wishes to inquire about the Catholic faith. Maybe you have been attending Mass for awhile and would like to learn more about the beliefs and practices of Catholics. You might be married to a Catholic, or you have a Catholic friend or relative and would like to discuss your questions or concerns about Catholicism with someone from the church. We invite you to continue searching at OCIA (Order of Catholic Initiation for Adults)

If you would like to fully explore the possibility of becoming Catholic or refer a friend, please reach out to Fr. Liptak at jliptak@basilthegreat.org or 440.373.7560. OCIA will begin this August.

Featured on the St.
Basil Podcast

Hear Aaron's story of going through OCIA at St. Basil, what led him to it, what the experience was like, and how the Lord touched his heart.

*Searching, Curious,
Interested in the Catholic Church?*

Share more about your journey through this form and we will be happy to accompany you.

JOIN OUR ST BASIL Resurrection Choir

Join the choir that sings for all of our Parish Funeral Liturgies. Our Resurrection choir brings comfort and peace to the family's of our Parish that have lost a loved one.

If you've ever experienced a funeral at St. Basil, the choir fills the church with beautiful music at a time when it is difficult for those in attendance to sing. It's a wonderful and fulfilling ministry. No experience necessary, just a desire to bring comfort and healing during a difficult time.

"...they will lay hands on the sick & they will recover." - Mark 16:18

Jesus promised, "These signs will accompany those who believe...They will lay hands on the sick and they will recover." (Mark 16:17) Jesus has called us to do what he did, and that includes healing the sick. The event is a two-day conference to teach, impart and activate Christians to be a more effective minister of Jesus' healing in the world! Are you going to give him the chance?

BAPTISM

Baptism is the gateway to life in the Spirit and the door which gives access to the other sacraments (CCC 1213).

It is like birth – indeed, Christ calls it a “new birth”

(John 3:5), a birth from above.

Baptism has two effects, one of which takes something away and the other of which gives something. “Through Baptism we are (1) freed from sin and (2) reborn as sons and daughters of God; we become members of Christ incorporated into the Church” (CCC 1213).

To schedule a Baptism and receive information, regardless of whether this is your first child or not, please fill out the Baptism Info Form by going to our St. Basil the Great website: basilthegreat.org- then choose Sacraments then Baptism.

WHAT MUST SOMEONE DO TO BE A GODPARENT?

There are 2 parts to serving as a Godparent for Baptism in the Catholic Church:

Being and Doing.

Being

Be a Catholic who has received the Sacraments of Baptism, First Holy Communion, and Confirmation

Be a faithfully believing and practicing

Be a member in good standing of a parish community

Be at least 16 years of age

Doing

Godparents have NO special classes or meetings to attend (as first-time parents do)

Godparents simply must obtain from their home parish a Godparent sponsor certificate and turn it into the St. Basil parish office as soon as possible, hopefully 30 days before the Baptism. 8700 Brecksville Rd. Brecksville, OH 44141

If a Godparent is physically unable to be present at the actual Baptism, a proxy can stand in. Please notify your priest or deacon immediately if this is the case.

Life of Our Saints

ST. JOHN VIANNEY

Saint John Vianney (Saint Jean Vianney), also known as the Curé d'Ars, is considered the patron saint of parish priests. He is known for his deep devotion to the Church and his dedication to the sacrament of confession. His life inspires all priests, as he exemplified a genuinely holy priest through his humility, selflessness, and unwavering faith.

John Vianney's Role as Curé d'Ars: Situations calling for "impossible" deeds followed him everywhere. As pastor of the parish at Ars, St Vianney encountered people who were indifferent and quite comfortable with their style of living. His vision led him through severe fasts and short nights of sleep. John spent much of his time in the confessional, hearing the confessions of countless penitents. His deep understanding of human nature and compassion for sinners made him an effective confessor, and many experienced spiritual conversion through his guidance and prayers.

Miracles and Spiritual Leadership: With Catherine Lassagne and Benedicta Lardet, he established La Providence, a home for girls. Only a man of vision could have such trust that God would provide for the spiritual and material needs of all those who came to make La Providence their home. His deep devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary earned him the title "Mary's Priest" or "Maria of Ars."

The Power of Confession: John Vianney's Legacy: His work as a confessor is John Vianney's most remarkable accomplishment. He was to spend 11 to 12 hours daily reconciling people with God in the winter months. In the summer months, this time was increased to 16 hours. Unless a man was dedicated to his vision of a priestly vocation, he could not have endured this giving of self day after day. His devotion to the sacrament of confession inspired many to return to their faith and receive God's forgiveness. He is known as the patron saint of confessors and is a role model for all priests in their duty to shepherd their flock and lead them towards God's mercy.

St. John Vianney Feast Day and Legacy: The feast of St John Vianney is celebrated on August 4th, the anniversary of his death. He is remembered as a model of holiness and dedication to the priesthood, with many priests looking to him for guidance and inspiration in their ministry. His legacy continues as he exemplifies true sanctity and devotion to God. Saint John Vianney's life serves as a reminder that with determination, faith, and trust in God, one can overcome any obstacle and fulfill one's calling with great love and humility. May we all strive to follow in his footsteps and become holy instruments of God's mercy and grace. - USCCB

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

The Diocese of Cleveland's "Protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior. Also, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at: 216-334-2999 or via email at: response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

We pray for all those who are in need of our prayers.

PROVIDING HOLISTIC COUNSELING SERVICES TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTHEAST OHIO

As I was praying with the readings for this Sunday, I felt an overwhelming sense of peace and gratitude for the ways in which the Lord cares for me as His beloved daughter. Specifically, this line from the responsorial Psalm stood out to me, "The hand of the Lord feeds us, He answers all our needs." I used this verse to replace some of the thoughts that I experience when I encounter a challenge or difficulty in the day to day moments of life. Even though I spend time praying with scripture regularly, these sacred words aren't always at the forefront of my mind. Rather than allowing myself to be filled with thoughts of hope and trust in challenging moments, I sometimes find myself giving into thoughts of overwhelm and despair. I wonder if the same is true for you?

I have found that it can be helpful to be prepared for these moments with a familiar scripture passage. This allows me to quickly arm myself with the Lord's words of comfort and truth. In counseling, I often invite clients to write a meaningful scripture verse on a notecard and place it somewhere visible until it becomes committed to memory. I encourage you to do the same with one of the lines we hear today or another one of your favorite verses from scripture. You can allow the words to wash over you and become your guiding light whenever you need it most. In solidarity, I will be placing the words from Psalm 145 above my kitchen sink, where I know I will see them often!
