Married and Engaged Couples-Cana Night

Hosted by Marriages of Grace | To register, visit www.marriagesofgrace.org

All married and engaged couples are invited to join Marriages of Grace on Friday, August 21, for dinner and an inspiring presentation by our special guest, Bishop Michael G. Woost, who will be speaking on The Liturgy of the Hours as the Prayer of Spouses. The Catholic Church in the United States will soon begin using the first new English translation of the Liturgy of the Hours in more than fifty years. Bishop Woost will explore how the Liturgy of the Hours is not only the official prayer of the Church, but also a beautiful and practical way for husbands and wives to pray together. Whether you have never opened the Liturgy of the Hours or have prayed it for years, you'll leave with a deeper appreciation for this timeless treasure and practical ways to incorporate it into your married life. Enjoy an elegant dinner, meaningful conversation with other couples, and an evening that will encourage and inspire your vocation to marriage. Reserve your place today by visiting

Following St. Francis of Assisi Into the Heart of Jesus and Abba Father

Following St. Francis of Assisi into the Heart of Jesus and Abba Father

Spend a prayerful weekend (October 2nd to 4th) reflecting on the life and spirituality of St. Francis of Assisi and his profound conversion to Jesus Christ on the 800th Anniversary of his death. Themes to be addressed: his growing reverence for all creation and rapid growth of followers in the Lord, his commitment to dialogue, non-violence, and peace-making, and the Franciscan Way. The weekend will be conducted in prayerful silence after each talk. Weekend includes topical talks, liturgy, adoration, meals, and optional group sharing session.

St. Philip Neri- Joy!

When was the last time you did something just for the joy of it?

It is one of the things we tend to admire in people. Many of the people we admire do much of what they do just for the joy of it. What do you do just for the joy of it?

Saint Philip Neri is the patron saint of joy. And for good reason.

Philip used to pray in the catacombs of the Church of St. Sebastian in Rome. One night in 1544, several years before he was a priest, Philip received a vision in those catacombs. It was the eve of Pentecost, and a ball of fire appeared before Philip and entered into his heart. It actually broke both of his ribs, as confirmed by an autopsy after he died—which also found that his heart was massive even though he had lived to the old age of 79.

After his experience in the Catacombs on that night in 1544, Philip burned with joy. He became known for his humor and approachable nature, which he used effectively to draw people closer to God. He started a tutoring program for youth, emphasizing the importance of music, art, and laughter in spirituality. Eventually, he became known as the “Second Apostle of Rome,” after Saint Peter.

Philip became a priest in 1551, ministering to the sick, the poor, and pilgrims. By his own example, he led others to have a devotion to the Holy Spirit. Philip enthusiastically encouraged others to engage in the joyful sacraments of Confession and Communion.

Philip’s life was not all fun and games: He led a reform of Catholic clergy and also dealt with the violent upheaval of the Protestant Reformation. But he faced these challenges with a joyful spirit.

Saint Philip Neri had truly received the fruit of the Holy Spirit that we too often forget about: Joy.

If you look at joyful people a little closer, you will discover something fascinating. For the most part, they do the same things that everyone else does, but they approach them very differently. They may work as hard as the next person, but they don't do it just to make money or because they have to, they have found a way to work joyfully. They don't focus on getting it finished so they can do something else. They focus on enjoying what they are doing and doing it well.

What can you do today just for the joy of it?

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

The Diocese of Cleveland's "Protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior. PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

PROVIDING HOLISTIC COUNSELING SERVICES TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTHEAST OHIO

The word "trigger" has become popularized in modern culture and is often misused. A trigger is, clinically speaking, a historical emotion. Our nervous system gets blueprinted in us when stressful and overwhelming life circumstances occur. This blueprint (whose job is to detect danger in the present moment) can get activated whenever it perceives that this current event seems the same as an old one. This in turn provokes reaction rather than a thoughtful response. Today's Gospel immediately brought to my mind how easily people who have been traumatized (in big or small ways) can get triggered. A woman begging for Jesus' help for her daughter seemingly gets rejected by him. We will never know her internal workings and how that impacted her initial internal response. What we do know is that whatever took place inside, on the outside she sought objective good and truth, and propelled by love for her daughter risked being turned away again. Whatever her "blueprint," she moved toward the truth because her faith was bigger than her fear. Perhaps she took a breath, or maybe she thought of her daughter's affliction and knew Jesus was her only hope. Whatever the case there is something we can learn from this woman. Feelings, including those originating from triggers, are a data source; they are not directives. We should always acknowledge our feelings. But our faith, informed by reason, should be what directs our decisions.
