Interested in becoming Catholic?

Know someone that is searching?

All are welcome to OCIA at St. Basil!

St. Basil The Great Parish welcomes anyone who wishes to inquire about the Catholic faith. Maybe you have been attending Mass for awhile and would like to learn more about the beliefs and practices of Catholics. You might be married to a Catholic, or you have a Catholic friend or relative and would like to discuss your questions or concerns about Catholicism with someone from the church. We invite you to continue searching at OCIA (Order of Catholic Initiation for Adults)

If you would like to fully explore the possibility of becoming Catholic or refer a friend, please reach out to Fr. Liptak at jliptak@basilthegreat.org or 440.373.7560. OCIA will begin this August.

*Searching, Curious, Interested

Book Study Theo of Golden

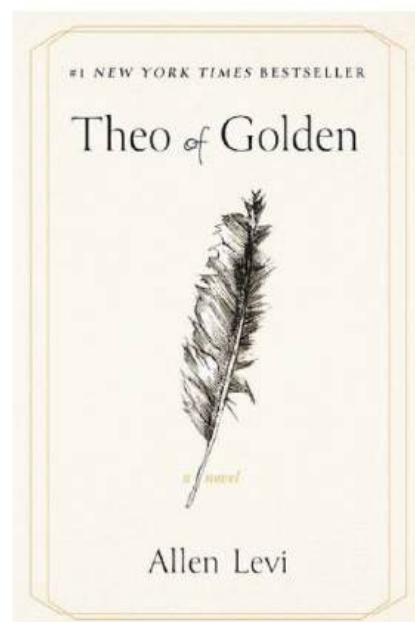

"Words and stories have the power to challenge, change, and inspire us" Allen Levi

Join us for a book study of Theo of Golden, a moving novel that explores faith, hope, forgiveness, and the quiet ways God works through ordinary people. Together we'll reflect on the characters' journey, share meaningful conversation, and discover how their story can strengthen our relationship with God and one another.

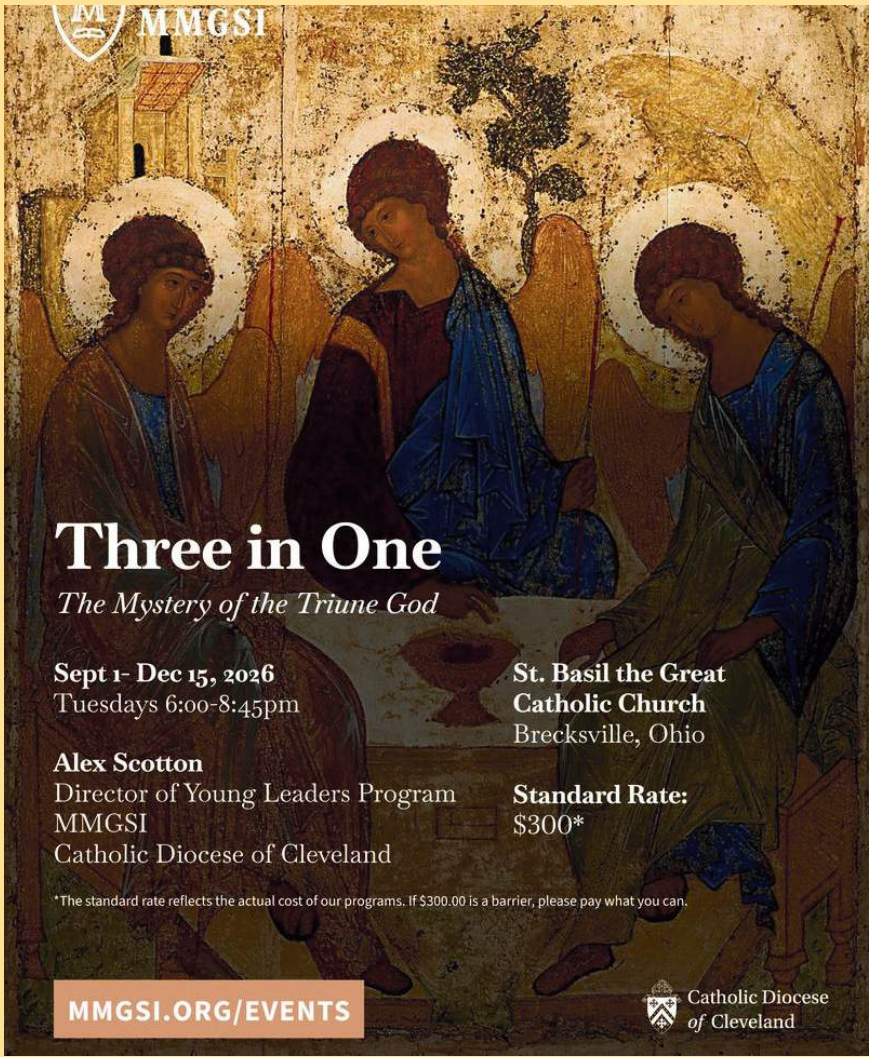

Monday's at 9:00 am September 21, 28, October 5 in the Parish Center. Coffee and pastries included. Participants are asked to read the book before September 21.

Helping those in need

37th Annual Appalachian Collection will support the following charitable organization this year
Christian Appalachian Project (CAP)

There will be two trucks in the parking lot next to the Annex from 8am to 6pm or until the trucks are full.

Please do not drop off anything the night before.

This year, the Appalachian Collection will support those in need residing in the Appalachian Mountains in the Eastern Kentucky area. The Knights of Columbus of Our Lady of Charity Council 14406 would appreciate donations of household goods, including small appliances, cooking utensils, dishes, sheets, blankets, towels, all clothing and toys. To prevent your donation items from becoming separated or damaged, please tie shoes together, double bag, securely close bags and limit box and bag weights to no more than 25#. Monetary donations will also be accepted and are greatly appreciated. Receipts will be provided for all donations.

"When considering your donation, please keep in mind that broken items or items that are harshly used are more of a burden to the Collection than a blessing." A good rule of thumb defining a worthy donation - - donate only items that you would donate to a family member or neighbor and they would use.

A list of items needed (and not needed) can be found at:

www.kofc14406.org/Collection.

If you wish to learn more about the Christian Appalachian Project, their website is www.christianapp.org

CAP is providing TWO 53ft trailers again this year and donations will be accepted until both trucks are full so please drop off your donations before early afternoon. Please bring your donations to the St. Basil parking lot on:
Saturday, Sept 19th 8:00am until 6:00pm or until BOTH trailers are full

Many volunteers are needed to help with this project. If you are able to help in any capacity, please sign up at www.kofc14406.org/Collection . You will be glad you took the time!

If you have further questions, please contact Ken Peters at 216-849-1434.

World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation

The Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development announces the theme chosen by Pope Leo XIV for the 2026 celebration of the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, held on September 1, as "They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks" (Is 2:4)

The Dicastery states that the Holy Father's Message for the Day highlights the connection between armed conflict and environmental degradation. Such degradation, it underscored, constitutes both a serious violation of our duty to care for creation, as well as a long-term threat to the lives of hundreds of millions of people.

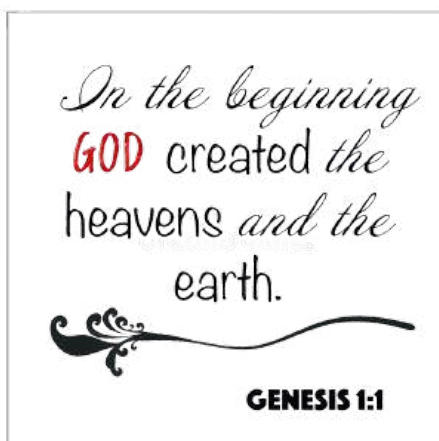

Moreover, it said "the now widespread awareness of the impact of war on natural resources has not led to the creation of adequate institutions or to responsible decisions aimed at preventing conflicts and resolving disputes peacefully."

Finally, the statement concluded that the title, the passage in which the Prophet Isaiah prophesies the transformation of weapons into agricultural tools, "is an explicit invitation to prioritize development and sustainability over violence and destruction."

"... prioritize development and sustainability over violence and destruction"

Moreover, it said "the now widespread awareness of the impact of war on natural resources has not led to the creation of adequate institutions or to responsible decisions aimed at preventing conflicts and resolving disputes peacefully."

The Catholic Diocese of Cleveland observes the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation on September 1st. This day marks the start of the global Season of Creation, which runs through October 4th, the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi.

God of beauty and God of truth, everything in your creation is connected, for all share a common origin in your creating hand. Fill us with a spirit of praise, gratitude, wisdom, and courage, that we might care for creation and not misuse it, ensure that its goods are shared in justice with all our brothers and sisters, and speak out on its behalf whenever it is threatened. Amen. - Annonoymus

Following St. Francis of Assisi Into the Heart of Jesus and Abba Father

Following St. Francis of Assisi into the Heart of Jesus and Abba Father

Spend a prayerful weekend (October 2nd to 4th) reflecting on the life and spirituality of St. Francis of Assisi and his profound conversion to Jesus Christ on the 800th Anniversary of his death. Themes to be addressed: his growing reverence for all creation and rapid growth of followers in the Lord, his commitment to dialogue, non-violence, and peace-making, and the Franciscan Way. The weekend will be conducted in prayerful silence after each talk. Weekend includes topical talks, liturgy, adoration, meals, and optional group sharing session.

St. Padre Pio

Early Life and Priesthood

- Born on May 25, 1887 to poor farmer parents.
- Took the name Pio when he entered the Capuchin order.
- Dealt with poor health but maintained a deep prayer life from a young age.

The Stigmata

- Received the bleeding wounds of Christ (stigmata) on September 20, 1918.
- Carried these painful wounds on his hands, feet, and side for 50 years.
- Attracted thousands of pilgrims to his daily masses and long hours in the confessional.

Major Works and Death

- Opened the major hospital named Casa Sollievo della Sofferenza (Home for the Relief of Suffering) on May 5, 1956.
- Died on September 23, 1968 at age 81 in San Giovanni Rotondo.
- Declared a saint by Pope John Paul II on June 16, 2002.

Suffering is an inevitable part of life, but it doesn't have to be meaningless. Like so many things in life that we have little or no control over, how we respond to suffering makes all the difference. One of the greatest saints of the 20th century, Padre Pio, suffered every single day. Poor health began to plague him as a young man and for the rest of his life he was not without physical pain. At 31, he received the visible Stigmata—a miraculous manifestation of Jesus' wounds on his own body—and it stayed with him for the next fifty years. The pain was agonizing, and the wound on his heart actively bled every day.

In the midst of his suffering—and perhaps in a mysterious way because of it—Padre Pio worked healing miracles for many people who encountered him. Whatever suffering you are facing right now, we invite you to say these words now and offer it up to God as a prayer: Saint Padre Pio's most famous quotes center on trust, prayer, and suffering, best captured by his timeless advice: "Pray, hope, and don't worry", "Prayer is the oxygen of the soul", and "The field of battle between God and Satan is the human soul"

Prayers

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

The Diocese of Cleveland's "Protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior. Also, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at: 216-334-2999 or via email at: response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

We pray for all those who are in need of our prayers.

While there are many beloved prayers to the Blessed Mother, The Memorare is often considered the most special and powerful prayer turned to for urgent or miraculous help. It expresses deep trust that Mary never fails to help those who seek her protection.

The Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that any one who fled to thy protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, We fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins my Mother; to thee do we come, before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful; O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer them. Amen.

IN LOVING MEMORY
OFELIA D. BANGAYAN

WWW.SACREDHEARTCLEVELAND.COM

PROVIDING HOLISTIC COUNSELING SERVICES TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTHEAST OHIO

In this week's Gospel, Jesus asks His disciples this profound question. It is a foundational question that He asks each one of us. While the answer may seem obvious, it is one that many struggle to answer from the heart. Peter responds, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Yet Peter did not arrive at this truth through his own intellect. Rather, as Jesus tells him, it was revealed to him by God the Father.

Too often, we approach Scripture relying solely on our own understanding. We try to make sense of Jesus' words, actions, and parables through human reasoning alone, when they can only be fully understood through, with, and in Christ. We must first encounter Him before we can truly understand Him.

The same is often true in marriage. God created each of us uniquely, and through the sacrament of marriage He is continually at work in the lives of husband and wife. Every marriage experiences seasons of struggle. When our attention becomes fixed on our spouse's shortcomings or on how we wish they would change, we risk missing what God is trying to reveal to us—just as many people misunderstood who Jesus truly was.

Like Peter, we are invited to see with the eyes of faith rather than through our own limited perspective. When we turn to Christ in the midst of our struggles, He gives us the grace to understand more deeply, to love more completely, and to see our spouse not simply through their weaknesses, but through the eyes of God's mercy. It is only through Him that we learn to love our spouse in the midst of their brokenness, just as Christ continues to love us in ours. The more deeply we know Christ, the more we become like Him—and the more our marriages become a living witness of His faithful, sacrificial, and merciful love.
