St. Bernadette's Relics to Tour the United States

After an opening celebration Sept. 18 at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception Washington, D.C., the yearlong tour's schedule will be announced in the coming months. The Sanctuary of Our Lady of Lourdes announced the relics of St. Bernadette Soubirous will travel to the United States as part of a 2026–2027 tour intended to bring the beloved saint to Catholic communities across America. The relics will depart Lourdes, France, and travel to the U.S. in September. The opening celebration will be held Sept. 18–20 at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C.

Following the opening, the relics will continue on a yearlong pilgrimage. Housed in a 132-pound reliquary, the relics will visit about 140 locations and stop at cathedrals, basilicas, shrines, seminaries, Catholic universities, hospitals, and parishes.

"The message of Lourdes remains as relevant today as it was in 1858," said Father Jim Phalan, the English-speaking chaplain for the sanctuary.

"Saint Bernadette's humility, faith, and trust in God continue to inspire people throughout the world. We are honored to bring her relics once again to the United States and invite countless individuals to experience the grace, healing, and hope associated with Lourdes," he said in a press release.

The original acts of St. Bernadette, official Latin-language canonical records documenting the extraction and authentication of her relics preserved in the archives of Nevers, indicate that taken for the relics were fragments of two ribs, kneecaps, a sample of muscle from the external part of the right femur, hair, and various fragments that came from muscles and skin.

The tour builds upon the positive response to the first U.S. pilgrimage of the relics in 2022, which welcomed hundreds of thousands of faithful at churches and shrines across the country.

Tour participants will have opportunities for veneration of the relics, Eucharistic celebrations, Marian devotions, catechetical presentations, and prayers for the sick.

According to the sanctuary, the long-term goal of the tour is to deepen the relationship between American Catholics and the sanctuary while encouraging future pilgrimages to Lourdes.

The tour's detailed schedule, participating dioceses, pilgrimage resources, and other opportunities to support the tour will be announced in the coming months.

Annulments

Seeking an annulment?

Terri Shawhan, D. Min., retired from the Diocesan Tribunal where she worked on Declarations of Invalidity of Marriage (annulments). She is available at the parish to work with parishioners who wish to petition for an annulment. Please contact her at the parish office at: 440-526-1686. This is a FREE service. There are NO fees charged for annulments.

Life of Our Saints

St. Bernadette Soubirous

Born: January 7, 1844, in Lourdes, France.

Died: April 16, 1879, at the age of 35 in Nevers, France.

Feast Day: April 16 (the anniversary of her death), though it is celebrated on February 18 in France.

Bernadette Soubirous was born in 1844 in Lourdes, France, into a poor family. In 1858, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared 18 times to Bernadette in Lourdes, France. Since then, Lourdes has become one of the world's most popular pilgrimage destinations. The apparitions led to the discovery of a water spring, which is associated with physical and spiritual healing. The spring welcomes millions of pilgrims to the Sanctuary of Our Lady of Lourdes to drink and bathe in the water.

Bernadette spent the rest of her life in prayer and service to others. She joined the Sisters of Charity of Nevers and lived a humble life despite becoming famous for the apparitions. She suffered from poor health for much of her life and died in 1879 at the age of 35.

On June 14, 1925, Pope Pius XI proclaimed Bernadette "blessed." Her body was then transferred to the shrine in Nevers, France, on July 18, 1925. On Dec. 8, 1933, Pope Pius XI canonized St. Bernadette, and her feast day is celebrated on April 16 in the U.S.

She belonged to the Sisters of Charity of Nevers, a religious congregation founded in France. She entered their motherhouse in Nevers in 1866 and took the religious name Sister Marie-Bernard.

Key Details About Her Religious Life:

Sisters of Charity of Nevers: The Congregation of the Sisters of Charity of Nevers focused on serving the poor, nursing the sick, and performing works of mercy

Religious Name: She was known within the order as Sister Marie-Bernard (or Marie-Bernarde).

Duties: Because of her fragile health, she served mainly as an infirmarium assistant and sacristan, spending her final years in prayer and quiet service at the Convent of St. Gildard until her death in 1879.

Saint Bernadette does not have just one single official symbol, but she is most frequently represented by a rosary, a candle, and yellow roses. These symbols connect directly to her visions of the Virgin Mary at the grotto in Lourdes, France.

Bernadette Soubirous's last words on April 16, 1879, were a final prayer to the Virgin Mary: "Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for me, a poor sinner, a poor sinner."

Deathbed Details:

Date of death: April 16, 1879 at age 35

Cause of death: Tuberculosis of the bone

Final action: Praying the rosary and clutching a crucifix

Prior statement: "All this is good for Heaven!" regarding her severe physical ailments.

PROVIDING HOLISTIC COUNSELING SERVICES TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTHEAST OHIO

This weekend's Gospel gives us an interesting challenge. Whether it is talking to someone about a moral issue, a rift in a relationship, or a difficult topic, confrontation can be difficult. For those that are conflict-avoidant, it can be downright terrifying. In these moments, it can also be tempting to gossip about how we may have been wronged or to confront the person publicly. However, Christ calls us in this reading to approach the person one-on-one to discuss the matter. Whether it is in a marriage, with a child, or even a friend, difficult topics need to be addressed sometimes. I have often been nervous and scared of these kinds of conversations and have frequently been surprised at how well it has gone and how receptive the person has been. If we never talk about it, we will never know how open the person is to discussing the matter. However, this is not always the case. When the person is not receptive, Christ calls us to bring in someone for support and then bring the church if that does not work. If we follow these steps, we can be at peace knowing that we did what we could do. How the other person reacts or responds is entirely outside of our control; all we can control is what we do. It can be difficult and heartbreaking when someone does not respond in a way to repair the wrongdoing or rift in the relationship, but at least we can surrender them to God's grace and know we took the only steps we could take to make things right.
