All Saints Day Celebration

ALL SAINTS DAY CELEBRATION

Sunday Nov. 1, 2026
9:00 am Mass | Social to follow

Children are invited to dress as a saint for Mass and participate in the opening procession! Following Mass, we will gather as a parish community for pastries!

Children should gather in the back of the Church by 8:55 to participate in the opening procession. After they process in, they will go back to their seats.

What saint should I be?

Kids are invited to dress up as any saint they would like! If you need somewhere to start, take a look at this list for inspiration.

- I love animals! St. Francis of Assisi loved all animals, St. Rocco is the patron saint of dogs, and St. Brigid of Ireland is a patron of farm animals!
- I love princesses! St. Elizabeth of Hungary, St. Margaret of Scotland, St. Jadwiga of Poland, and St. Olga of Kiev were all princesses.
- I want to be a super hero! St. Joseph of Cupertino is known as the flying friar, St. Joan of Arc led an army, and Padre Pio could bilocate!
- I want to be ____ when I grow up! A doctor- St. Gianna or St. Giuseppe Moscati, a teacher- St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, a mom- Mary, a dad- St. Joseph, a lawyer- St. Thomas More, firefighter- St. Florian, a priest- St. John Vianney

There are many easy tutorials online to help you create your costumes, often out of things you already have at home, or can easily thrift! Some of our favorite inspiration can be found from Catholic All Year, A Catholic Mom's Life, and Catholic Icing.

BAKERS NEEDED!

We are in need of bakery for our All Saints Day Celebration! Please bake something that represents a saint and drop it off at the Parish Office Friday Oct. 30 from 9:00 am-4:00 pm or Saturday Oct. 31 from 9:00 am - 12:00 pm. Please label your bakery with the saint!

Bakery that represents a Saint could be as elaborate as cinnamon rolls to represent St. Lucy, or as simple as brownies for St. Francis (he wore brown). Get creative!

How to pray the rosary

Key Reasons to Pray the Rosary

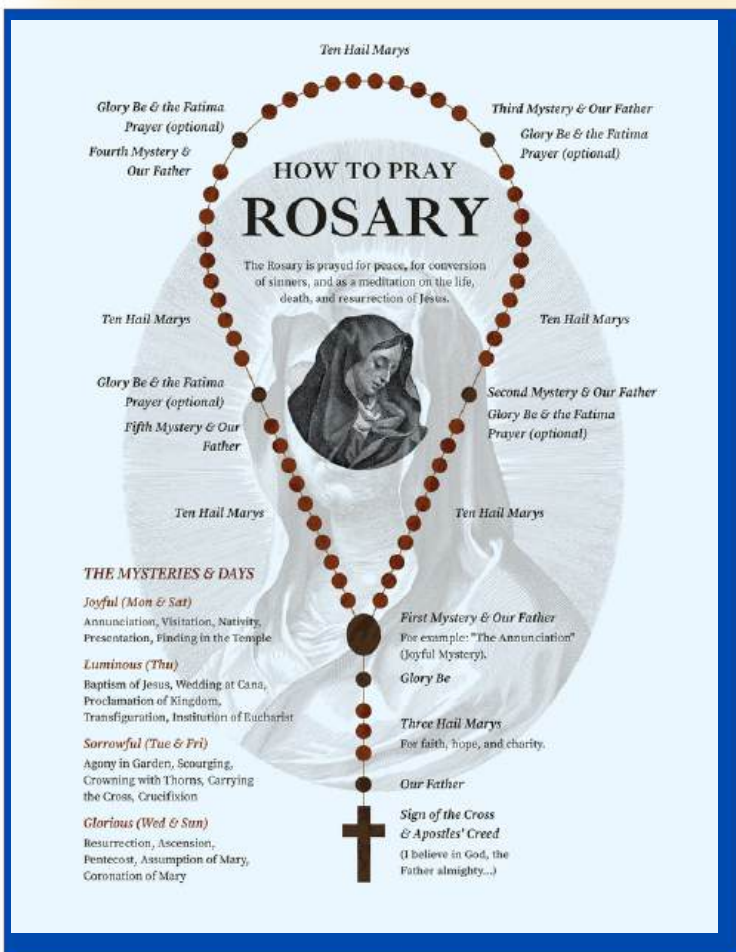

Contemplate Christ's Life: The repeated prayers act as a background rhythm, allowing you to meditate on the "mysteries" of Jesus and Mary (such as His birth, suffering, and resurrection).

Seek Mary's Intercession: Catholics do not worship Mary. Instead, they ask her to pray for them, trusting that a mother's prayers bring believers closer to her Son.

Find Peace and Calm: The repetitive nature of the vocal prayers (like the Our Father and Hail Mary) helps slow down the mind, reduce stress, and quiet a busy heart.

Stay Grounded in Prayer: Holding physical beads helps combat distractions and keeps the body grounded during prayer.

Spiritual Protection: Many believers view the Rosary as a spiritual defense against evil and a tool to encourage virtue over sin.

A poster for the Ignite Middle School Series. The background is a dark, grainy image of a crowd with their hands raised in the air. The word "IGNITE" is written in large, bold, yellow-outlined letters at the top. Below it, "MIDDLE SCHOOL SERIES" is written in smaller, white, all-caps letters. In the center, there is a small orange pumpkin icon. Below the pumpkin, the date "OCTOBER 18TH" is displayed in white, all-caps letters inside a red, pill-shaped box. At the bottom, the text "SUNDAY, 6:00 - 8:00 PM", "ST. BASIL FAMILY LIFE CENTER", and "OPEN TO ALL 6TH-8TH GRADE STUDENTS!" is written in white, all-caps letters.

Life of Our Saints

St. Thérèse of Lisieux, OCD

Born: January 2, 1873-

Alecon, France

Died: September 30, 1897

(at the age of 24) Lisieux, France

Life and Legacy: Holy Parents, Louis and Zélie Martin (both canonized as saints in the year 2015).

One of nine children- four Martin children died in infancy; the other five, daughters, became nuns. When Thérèse was four years old, her mother passed away and the family moved to Lisieux.

In 1883, on Pentecost Sunday, St. Thérèse experienced a miraculous healing from a serious illness through the intercession of Our Lady of Victories. The following year, at age 11, she received both her First Holy Communion and the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Important Facts About Her Life/Dates/Vocation: She entered the Carmelite Monastery at the young age of 15 with special papal permission, and died of tuberculosis at age 24 in 1897.

The Promise of Roses: On her deathbed, she promised to spend her heaven doing good on earth and to let fall a "shower of roses" (graces and intercessions) for those who ask. Doctor of the Church: Pope John Paul II named her a Doctor of the Church in 1997, making her one of the youngest people and one of the few women to hold the title. Thérèse of Lisieux, known as the "Little Flower," taught the "Little Way", which is a spiritual path of finding holiness in ordinary, daily life through childlike trust in God.

Key Points of Her Teachings

- The Little Way: Holiness does not require grand, heroic deeds; instead, it is about doing small, everyday actions with great love.
- Spiritual Childhood: Remaining "little" means recognizing one's human limitations ("nothingness") and relying completely on God's mercy rather than trying to earn salvation through personal pride or self-sufficiency.
- Accepting Failures: Instead of becoming discouraged by faults or sins, she taught that we should accept our weakness and trust in God's infinite mercy, because distress over failure often stems from pride.
- The Value of the Ordinary: She embraced an ordinary life, noting that even the Holy Family experienced mundane struggles, weariness, and hardship without relying on constant miracles.

• Charity in Patience: True charity means bearing patiently with the faults, weaknesses, and flaws of other people. She knew she could not do great things in life, but she could do little things with great love. She realized by being humble, having complete confidence in God, and doing everything in her life with love, she could become a saint. Since the Little Flower's death in 1897, countless miracles have been attributed to her intercession, fulfilling her prophesy: "I shall spend my heaven in doing good upon earth."

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Pope Leo XIV prayed at the Grotto of the Apparitions

(also known as the Grotto of Massabielle)

Details of the Visit Date: Saturday, September 26, 2026.

Location: Sanctuary of Our Lady of Lourdes in Lourdes, France (the site of St. Bernadette's 1858 apparitions)

Actions: Pope Leo knelt in silent prayer, touched the stone walls of the grotto, drank water from the miraculous spring, and lit a candle.

Intentions: He prayed for the sick, the suffering, world peace, and "fraternal harmony" in France.

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

We pray for all those who are in need of our prayers.

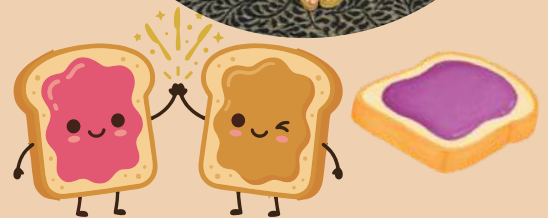

IN LOVING MEMORY

WE REMEMBER ALL OF OUR DECEASED LOVED ONES. MAY THEY REST IN PEACE.
