The All Souls Memorial Book is on the lectern near the statue of St. Joseph in the church. You can write the names of all of your loved ones who have passed away recently or over the years in the Memorial Book. They will be in our prayers..

All Souls Day

The Catholic Church celebrates All Souls' Day on November 2nd to pray for and remember the faithful departed who are undergoing purification in Purgatory.

Purpose of All Souls' Day

Purification in Purgatory: The Church teaches that most people who die in God's grace still carry minor or unconfessed traces of sin. They require a temporary period of spiritual cleansing in Purgatory to achieve the holiness needed to enter Heaven.

Assisting the Dead: Catholics believe that their prayers, sacrifices, and memorial Masses act as acts of love and mercy that help shorten this purification process.

The Communion of Saints: The day highlights the ongoing spiritual connection between living believers on Earth and the souls awaiting eternal life. -USCCB

All Saints Day Celebration

ALL SAINTS DAY CELEBRATION

Sunday Nov. 1, 2026
9:00 am Mass | Social to follow

Children are invited to dress as a saint for Mass and participate in the opening procession! Following Mass, we will gather as a parish community for pastries!

Children should gather in the back of the Church by 8:55 to participate in the opening procession. After they process in, they will go back to their seats.

What saint should I be?

Kids are invited to dress up as any saint they would like! If you need somewhere to start, take a look at this list for inspiration.

- I love animals! St. Francis of Assisi loved all animals, St. Rocco is the patron saint of dogs, and St. Brigid of Ireland is a patron of farm animals!
- I love princesses! St. Elizabeth of Hungary, St. Margaret of Scotland, St. Jadwiga of Poland, and St. Olga of Kiev were all princesses.
- I want to be a super hero! St. Joseph of Cupertino is known as the flying friar, St. Joan of Arc led an army, and Padre Pio could bilocate!
- I want to be ____ when I grow up! A doctor- St. Gianna or St. Giuseppe Moscati, a teacher- St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, a mom- Mary, a dad- St. Joseph, a lawyer- St. Thomas More, firefighter- St. Florian, a priest- St. John Vianney

There are many easy tutorials online to help you create your costumes, often out of things you already have at home, or can easily thrift! Some of our favorite inspiration can be found from Catholic All Year, A Catholic Mom's Life, and Catholic Icing.

BAKERS NEEDED!

We are in need of bakery for our All Saints Day Celebration! Please bake something that represents a saint and drop it off at the Parish Office Friday Oct. 30 from 9:00 am-4:00 pm or Saturday Oct. 31 from 9:00 am - 12:00 pm. Please label your bakery with the saint!

Bakery that represents a Saint could be as elaborate as cinnamon rolls to represent St. Lucy, or as simple as brownies for St. Francis (he wore brown). Get creative!

CATHOLIC CHURCH

Saints...

All Christians are called to be saints. Saints are persons in heaven (officially canonized or not), who lived heroically virtuous lives, offered their life for others, or were martyred for the faith, and who are worthy of imitation.

In official Church procedures there are three steps to sainthood: a candidate becomes "Venerable," then "Blessed" and then "Saint." Venerable is the title given to a deceased person recognized formally by the pope as having lived a heroically virtuous life or offered their life. To be beatified and recognized as a Blessed, one miracle acquired through the candidate's intercession is required in addition to recognition of heroic virtue or offering of life. Canonization requires a second miracle after beatification. The pope may waive these requirements. A miracle is not required prior to a martyr's beatification, but one is required before canonization.

Key Terms:

Beatification - the second stage in the process of proclaiming a person a saint; occurs after a diocese or eparchy and the Congregation for the Causes of Saints has conducted a rigorous investigation into the person's life and writings to determine whether he or she demonstrates a heroic level of virtue, offered their life or suffered martyrdom. A miracle attributed to the person's intercession must be proved.

Blessed - title bestowed on a person who has been beatified and accorded limited liturgical veneration.

Canonization – the formal process by which the Church declares a person to be a saint and worthy of universal veneration.

Congregation for the Causes of Saints – a department of the Roman Curia, established originally as the Congregation of Rites by Pope Sixtus V in 1588. Reorganized and renamed in 1969 by Pope Paul VI, and again in 1983 by Pope John Paul II. Some of the responsibilities of the Congregation include making recommendations to the pope on beatifications and canonizations, and the authentication and preservation of sacred relics. -USCCB

Miracle –something that has occurred by the grace of God through the intercession of a Venerable, or Blessed which is scientifically inexplicable.

Petitioner – party initiating an action in canon law. In the case of a sainthood cause, the petitioner is one who asks the diocesan bishop to begin the investigation which could ultimately lead to canonization. (A bishop may also begin a cause on his own initiative, in which case he is the petitioner.)

Positio – a comprehensive summary of all documentation; in this context, there are two: the one summarizing the investigation of a candidate's life and heroic virtues or offering of life, or martyrdom and a second for any alleged miracles. The Positio is prepared during the Roman phase by the postulator with the assistance of someone from the Congregation for the Causes of Saints.

Postulator - person appointed to guide and oversee the cause. One oversees the cause at the diocesan or eparchial level (Phase I); the Roman postulator, oversees all aspects of Phases II and III.

Prefect - the head of any of the Roman curial congregations, usually a cardinal.

Relator - person appointed by the Congregation for the Causes of Saints to assemble the historic documentation of the candidate for canonization.

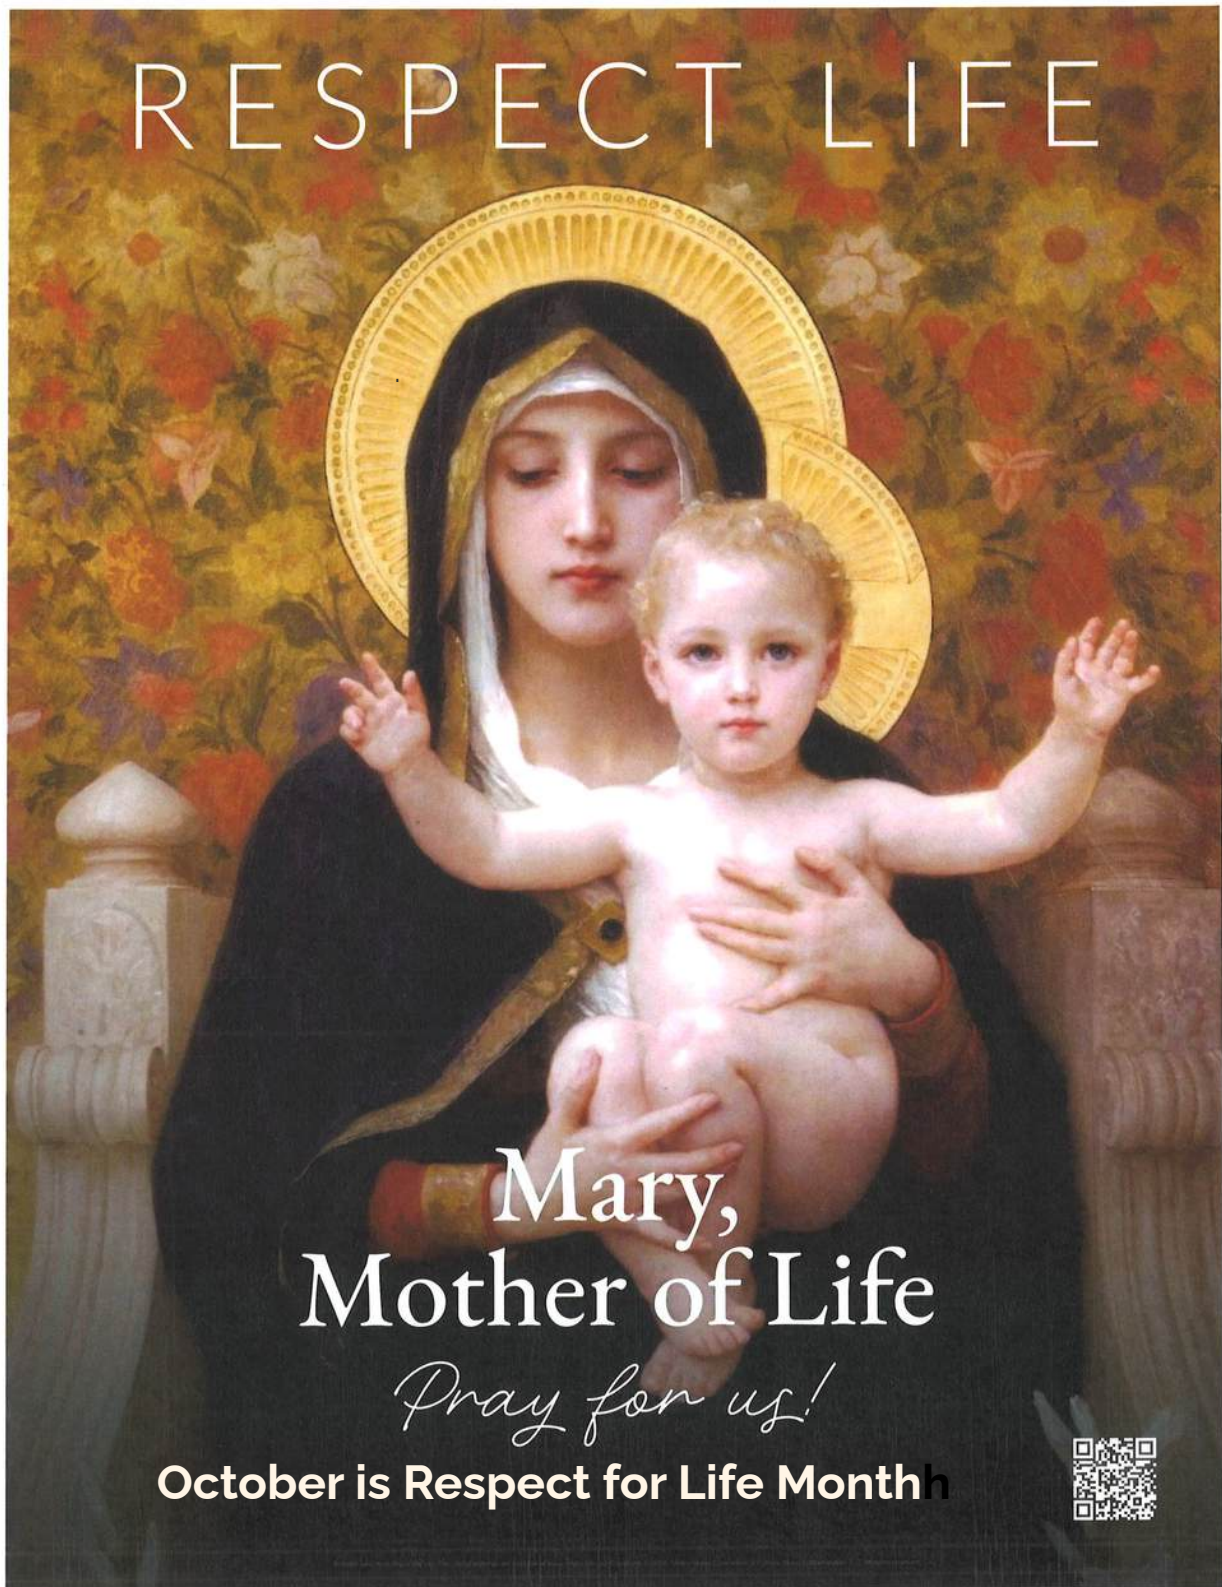

Saint – the title given to someone who has been formally canonized by the Church as sharing eternal life with God, and therefore offered for public veneration and imitation.

Servant of God - the title given to a candidate for sainthood whose cause is still under investigation, prior to being declared Venerable.

Venerable – the title given to a candidate for sainthood whose cause has not yet reached the beatification stage but whose heroic virtue has been declared by the pope. -USCCB

Life of Our Saints

St. Angela Merici

A.D. 1474-1540

Feast Day: January 27

Saint Angela Merici was a 15th- and 16th-century Italian religious educator who founded the Company of Saint Ursula, the first teaching order of women in the Catholic Church.

Life and Legacy:

Birth and Early Life: Born on March 21, 1474, in Desenzano, Italy, she was orphaned in her teens and raised by an uncle.

Revolutionary Vision: In 1535, she gathered women in Brescia, Italy, to educate young girls, particularly the poor. Unlike traditional nuns, her followers lived in their own homes rather than cloistered convents.

Patronage: She is the patron saint of the disabled, the sick, and those grieving the loss of parents. She was canonized in 1807 by Pope Pius VII

Symbols: A clock and a ladder

Albert Einstein wrote, "Everybody is a genius. But if you judge a fish by its ability to climb a tree, it will live its whole life believing that it is stupid."

What is your genius?

You may be thinking quietly to yourself that you don't have a genius. You may be tempted to doubt the idea and think that only extraordinary people possess genius. But no, everybody is a genius, and that includes you. Being a genius isn't about doing something, inventing something, or discovering something. It's about becoming the person God created you to be, and finding the one thing you can do best.

Saint Angela Merici didn't find her genius through scientific inventions or grand theories. Rather, she discovered what God wanted her to do, and she did it. She discovered what she could do better than anyone else alive, and pursued it with all her heart. And she left the legacy of a genius.

Angela perceived God calling her to found a religious society of women who would live at home and be devoted to educating girls. This idea would have seemed ridiculous at the time, as girls were rarely educated and women were not supposed to serve the Church outside of a convent. But Angela pursued the idea with all the force of her genius, and founded the Company of St. Ursula in 1535, named after the patron saint of medieval universities. It is the world's oldest order of consecrated women dedicated to the education of girls. We all have one thing that we're uniquely capable of doing, and doing amazingly. What is your one thing? Find that, and you will find your genius. Focus on that, and you will develop your genius. Embrace your genius, focus on your genius, and share it with the world.

What's the one thing I can do more excellently than anything else? How would my life change if I focused on that one thing? I have a genius and I will live it fully.

Also, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at: 216-334-2999 or via email at: response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

PROVIDING HOLISTIC COUNSELING SERVICES TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTHEAST OHIO

Our second reading today reminds me of a parable about a farmer. The farmer's horse breaks a leg and his neighbors express sorrow at his bad luck. The farmer responds, "We'll see." The horse returns to the farmer with other horses, and his neighbors congratulate him on his good luck. The farmer responds, "We'll see." There is more to the story that you can find, but the themes present are about acceptance and taking things one day at a time. Many can think of times that something painful led to something greater, and others can think of times that something seemingly good led to disappointment. Too often we interpret moments as success or failure, lucky or unlucky, bless or cursed. The reality is that we do not know God's plan and what He has in store for us. St. Paul writes about living through times of being well fed and times of going hungry. While good times are enjoyable, they can also lead to us letting our guard down, losing a sense of gratitude, and developing bad habits. Bad times are tough, and can lead us to anger, sadness, and despair. St. Paul's point is that God and all of His teachings need to be present in both good times and in bad. Christ needs to be at the center and as our source of strength when things are going well because it is easy to forget Him when we are not suffering. Christ also needs to be at the center of our suffering, providing strength in our weakness to avoid the despair and anger that we can experience. Practicing this discipline can give us a radical acceptance and peace within day-to-day life, but also humility and gratitude throughout all of it. It may take time to develop this discipline, but the potential peace of mind, love for God, and humility are well worth the practice.
