Catholic Campaign for Human Development-CCHD Working on the Margins

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development is the national anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, working to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ "... to bring glad tidings to the poor ... liberty to captives ... sight to the blind, and let the oppressed go free." (Luke 4:18)

The belief that those who are directly affected by unjust systems and structures have the best insight into knowing how to change them is central to CCHD. CCHD works to break the cycle of poverty by helping low-income people participate in decisions that affect their lives, families and communities. CCHD offers a hand up, not a hand out. The collection is taken up in the Diocese of Cleveland the weekend of November 14-15, 2026.

SACRED HEART COUNSELING

Looking like we have it all together is an enticing goal to strive for. We all can find ourselves striving for this end. The fatigue and inauthenticity of this goal can be a heavy burden as we experience comparison, isolation, and failure along the way. This weekend brings a special opportunity to look at All Saints Day and the Beatitudes. The Beatitudes do not give us a rigid rulebook for earning holiness, but a view of divine empathy in our sorrows and suffering. Life is difficult, and holiness does not consist of acting like nothing bothers us or pretending we have no suffering. It is also not in minimizing our suffering as unimportant. Holiness is facing that suffering and seeing God present in it with us, as explained to us in the Beatitudes. All Saints Day can teach us this lesson too. A surface level understanding of the saints can convince us that they had it all together, and we just need to get on their level. However, we have countless examples of saints who experienced failure, intense suffering, and sorrow such as St. Augustine and St. Therese. Their answer was not to stuff it down, but in acknowledging it and simply allowing God to meet them there. The saints, in fact, did not have it all together. In the end, it is OK to not have it all together, but God asks us to face it and bring Him in to find the deeper comfort that only He can offer, satisfaction that lasts for eternity, and, in the end, Heaven itself. - Luke Brown, LPCC

Life of Our Saints

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

First native-born American citizen canonized as a saint by the Roman Catholic Church.
Birth: August 28, 1774
Died: January 4, 1821 in Emmitsburg, Maryland at the age of 46.
Feast Day: January 4th

Raised in a prominent Episcopalian family as Elizabeth Ann Bayley. Married wealthy businessman William Magee Seton in 1794 and had five children. Tragedy: Suffered financial ruin and lost her husband to tuberculosis in Italy in 1803, leaving her a young widow at age 29.

Catholic Conversion: Converted to Roman Catholicism in 1805 after experiencing the faith in Italy and facing social rejection from some family and friends.
First American Community: Founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph in 1809 in Emmitsburg, Maryland, marking the first religious community for women established in the United States.
Pioneer of Catholic Education: Opened America's first free Catholic school in Baltimore, laying the groundwork for the U.S. parochial school network. She also established the first American Catholic orphanage.

Canonization: Canonized on September 14, 1975, by Pope Paul VI.
Patron Saint: Honored as the patron saint of Catholic schools, educators, widows, and people who have lost parents.

Works of mercy had always been part of her life, and soon she opened a school in Baltimore. There, she was joined by other women and in 1813 they pronounced religious vows of chastity, poverty, and obedience. Elizabeth then became known as Mother Seton.
The Sisters of Charity and the parochial school system: The community that Mother Seton and her sisters created took the name The Sisters of Charity. They were dedicated to the education of Catholic girls and the care of children of the poor. It was the first congregation of religious sisters founded in the United States, and the school they founded in Baltimore was the first free Catholic school in America. It formed the basis of the parochial school system that continues today.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

PRAYER FOR THE SICK
