St. Basil Homeschoolers- Family Potluck Dinner & Candelit Rosary Procession

The Apostle Paul is known for several famous quotes from the New Testament, with some of his most recognized verses including:

-Love is patient, love is kind: "Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud." (1 Corinthians 13:4)

-We walk by faith, not by sight: "For we live by faith, not by sight." (2 Corinthians 5:7)

-I can do all things through Christ: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." (Philippians 4:13)

-Do not conform: "Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind." (Romans 12:2)

-The good fight: "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." (2 Timothy 4:7)

SACRED HEART COUNSELING

P: 440-305-6192
WWW.SACREDHEARTCLEVELAND.COM
PROVIDING HOLISTIC COUNSELING SERVICES TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTHEAST OHIO

Our relationship with God is just like any relationship that we have in the sense that it can have its ups and downs. In our relationships, we will hopefully learn that love is a verb and not simply a feeling. We will often need to choose to do what love asks of us rather than what we feel like doing. I personally never feel like changing diapers, but that is what love asks when there is a two month old in the house. When it comes to our spiritual lives, our readings this weekend remind us of the importance of vigilance. I will admit that prayer is easy to forego because I am tired, overwhelmed, or simply do not feel like it. However, prayer is where we come to know God the same way we come to know friends, spouses, and family by spending time and conversing with them. In our relationships, we sometimes have to assess and revisit them as a priority because we see a distance or lack of intimacy developing. This is not something to be ashamed of, simply something to be aware of and address. Maybe work has become more stressful or kids' sports are taking up more time and we realize that we have not connected with our spouse in a while. The same can be said of our prayer where we realize it has been too long since we went to adoration, confession, or even Mass. What do we need to do? Simply acknowledge it and re-prioritize it. If we do not, the distance will only grow and we will find ourselves in the same place as the virgins in the Gospel this weekend- not knowing God and not being known by God. Our relationships, both in prayer and our daily lives, need to be attended to with vigilance to grow in love!

Life of Our Saints

St. Matthias, Apostle

Birth/Origin: 1st century AD in Judaea, Roman Empire
Feast Day: (Roman Catholic / USCCB): May 14
Role: Chosen by lot to replace Judas Iscariot among the Twelve Apostles

St. Matthias is the patron saint of tailors, carpenters, those struggling with alcoholism, those suffering from smallpox, and people in need of hope and perseverance.

St. Matthias is, in many ways, the apostle we know least about — and that is precisely what makes him so interesting. He was there from the beginning. He most likely lived in Galilee when Jesus began his public ministry, fitting the description of one who "accompanied us the whole time the Lord Jesus came and went among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day on which he was taken up from us" (Acts 1:21–22). He heard the Sermon on the Mount. He watched the miracles. He was present through the full arc of Jesus' public life — and yet he was never named, never spotlighted, never singled out. He was simply there. Faithful. Watching. Following.

And then Judas betrayed the Lord, and everything changed. With all the questions, doubts and dangers facing the early Church, the apostles chose to focus their attention on finding a twelfth apostle. Twelve was a very important number to the Chosen People — it was the number of the twelve tribes of Israel. If the new Israel was to come from the disciples of Jesus, a twelfth apostle was needed. When the lots were cast, the name drawn was Matthias. He was the twelfth apostle, and the group was whole again as they waited for the coming of the Holy Spirit.

What strikes many about this moment is what it required of Matthias before it happened. He had spent years following Jesus without a title, without prominence, without any guarantee that it would lead anywhere. And yet he stayed. He remained faithful in the ordinary, unseen, uncelebrated work of discipleship — and that faithfulness was exactly what qualified him for what came next.

Why He Still Matters: Saint Matthias speaks directly to anyone who has ever felt overlooked, underqualified, or like a replacement for someone else.

He teaches us: That faithfulness in hiddenness is genuine faithfulness — and God sees it
That being chosen by God is never about being the most impressive candidate
That our past failures don't disqualify us — but someone else's failure doesn't qualify us either; it is God who chooses
That showing up, day after day, in prayer and discipleship, is the preparation for everything else
That the Church needs the Twelfth — needs every member, every role, every person willing to step into the gap

Ask Saint Matthias's intercession when you feel like a latecomer, a backup, or someone who doesn't quite belong. He knows that feeling — and he became an apostle anyway.

Read Acts 1:15–26 slowly. It's one of the shortest and most quietly powerful passages. St. Matthias, Pray for Us!

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

The Diocese of Cleveland's "Protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior. Also, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at:216-334-2999 or via email at: response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

We pray for all those who are in need of our prayers.
