Year-End Giving Opportunities

YEAR-END GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Support Our Parish • Reduce Taxes • Leave a Legacy of Faith

"For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."
Matthew 6:21

As year-end approaches, consider these tax-wise ways to support our parish and its ministries.

QUALIFIED CHARITABLE DISTRIBUTIONS

Age 70½+: Give directly from your IRA. Can satisfy required minimum distributions, exclude the gift from taxable income, and potentially reduce Medicare premiums or taxes on Social Security.

GIFTS OF APPRECIATED STOCK

Donate appreciated securities directly to potentially avoid capital gains tax, qualify for a deduction,* and provide the Church with the full value of your gift.

POD & TOD DESIGNATIONS

Name the Church as beneficiary of bank or brokerage accounts. No cost to establish; maintain control during life, with assets passing outside probate.

LIFE INSURANCE BENEFICIARIES

Name the Church as a primary, partial, or contingent beneficiary. Simple to arrange, with no impact on current cash flow.

IRA & RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

Designate the Church as beneficiary. Charities generally receive these assets income-tax free, and beneficiary designations can be changed or revoked.

CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITIES

Age 65+: Contribute cash or stock to a participating charitable organization in exchange for fixed lifetime payments. A partial charitable deduction may be available.

GIFTS THROUGH A WILL OR TRUST

Leave a specific amount, percentage, or residual gift to the Church. Retain control during life and support parish ministries for generations.

YEAR-END STEWARDSHIP CHECKLIST

- Make a cash gift
- Consider an IRA QCD
- Donate appreciated stock
- Review retirement beneficiaries
- Add POD / TOD designations
- Review life insurance
- Update your will or trust

Wishing you a blessed Advent, Christmas Season & New Year!

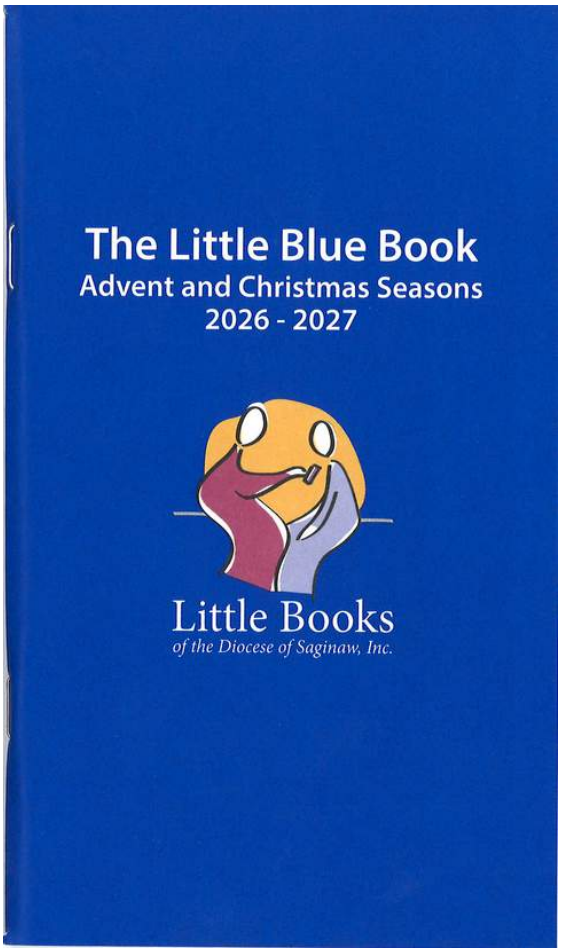

Contact your financial service provider for more details on how to give to St. Basil, or reach out to Diane Stuczynski, Business Manager, with additional questions.

My Daily Prayers

Funerals

AT ST. BASIL THE GREAT

In this month of November we are reminded of our death and the promise of life to come in heaven. One of the beautiful practices in preparing for our death is preparing for our funerals. You do not have to die before your funeral is planned! You can ease the burden for your family by choosing your funeral plans ahead of time, which will allow them peace of mind, knowing that they are fulfilling your wishes, and that all the details are complete.

Helpful notes:

- Do not put your funeral plans in your will. The reading of the will happens after the funeral and your family will miss your plans.
- When choosing readings and songs, if something speaks to you, that is likely the Lord, don't overthink it!
- It is never too soon to make funeral plans! You can always revisit them later in life, but you don't need to wait until you feel "old enough" to make them!

Prayer for Eternal Rest

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen

Ask Fr. Liptak: When do you call a priest at the end of life?

Don't wait too long! Viaticum, or food for the journey, is one of the last times that someone would receive communion before they die. If someone takes a turn or goes on Hospice, it is a good time to call the priest. We want to make this a beautiful time of prayer for you or your loved one, rather than a rush whenever possible.

If you are in the hospital, call the chaplain! While Fr. Ryan and I would love to be there for you and your loved ones every time, sometimes we can't make it, and the reason we have hospital chaplains is so that no one dies without the sacrament.

PROVIDING HOLISTIC COUNSELING SERVICES TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTHEAST OHIO

The Catechism of the Catholic Church in paragraph 357 tells us that since we are created in the image and likeness of God, we possess the "dignity of a human person, who is not just something, but someone." We matter and we have purpose because of who created us. Today's readings speak of the good works of the Proverbs 31 women and the servants who were given "talents" in the Gospel. We are called to give what we have been given. If (when!) we bury our talent, we bury part of our purpose and dignity. Many believe that because they were abandoned and abused that their dignity was taken and their potential squashed. But being created in the image and likeness of God means we have an indelible mark that no pain inflicted can take away. One of the greatest tragedies that surrounds trauma and abuse is how who you are, with all you are, gets buried underneath the lies. We participate in and continue the evil work of the abuse without even knowing it when laying down our gifts. In today's Gospel Jesus seems to be calling to us through our "talents" – to hear the voice of Truth - and allow our dignity to emerge again when we hear Him say "well done good and faithful servant."

-Nellie K, LISW-S, CCTP,
Sacred Heart Counseling Team

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Life of Our Saints

St. Catherine of Sienna

Caterina Benincasa, later St. Catherine of Siena, was born in 1347 in Siena, Italy, as the 25th child in a large family. St. Catherine of Siena died of a stroke in 1380 at 33 years old.

Within a year of her birth, there was great turmoil in Italy due to the plague and continuing economic and military problems. The Church was also still in a state of conflict, as the Catholic papacy had moved to Avignon, France, in 1309, before Catherine's birth. This period in Church history is known as the Western Schism.

Catherine experienced her first mystical vision – of Christ blessing her – at the age of 5. Two years later, she vowed to live a chaste life at 7. About a decade after, Catherine's older sister passed away, and her parents urged her to marry her sister's widower. Yet, despite her parents' desires, Catherine refused. Instead, she entered the Mantellate, the female branch of the Dominicans of the Third Order, at 16 after her vision of St. Dominic.

Vowing a life of piety and chastity, she lived in silence and isolation for some years but soon turned to a more public life of prayer, activism, and spiritual counseling. o start living the dream.

Her influence with Pope Gregory XI played a role in his 1376 decision to leave Avignon for Rome. The Pope then sent Catherine to negotiate peace with the Florentine Republic. After Gregory XI's death (March 1378) and the conclusion of peace (July 1378), she returned to Siena.

-Pope Pius II canonized St. Catherine of Siena in 1461.
-St. Paul VI, then Pope, declared St. Catherine of Siena a Doctor of the Church in 1970.
-1999: Co-Patroness of Europe
-In 1999, St. John Paul II, then Pope, named St. Catherine of Siena one of the co-patronesses of Europe, alongside St. Bridget of Sweden, and St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein). He spoke to her boldness, Devotion to Catherine developed rapidly after her death. Pope Pius II canonised her in 1461; she was declared a patron saint of Rome in 1866 by Pope Pius IX, and of Italy (together with Francis of Assisi) in 1939 by Pope Pius XII. She was the second woman to be declared a Doctor of the Church, on 4 October 1970 by Pope Paul VI – only days after Teresa of Ávila. In 1999 Pope John Paul II proclaimed her a patron saint of Europe.

Before the beginning of time, when you were just a dream, your purpose had already been assigned by our loving God. What will happen when you beome the best version of yourself even for a moment. Saint Catherine gives us the answer: "Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire."

St. Catherine of Sienna, Pray For Us!

PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN

The Diocese of Cleveland's "Protecting God's Children" program is a continuing effort to instruct and inform everyone about the protection of children from sexual abuse. To report any past or present suspected inappropriate behavior toward children by priests, deacons, religious, lay ecclesial ministers or personnel associated with the Church, immediately inform local authorities about inappropriate behavior. Also, please contact the Diocesan Response Service Office at:216-334-2999 or via email at: response_services@dioceseofcleveland.org.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

We pray for all those who are in need of our prayers.
